Custody battle sparks arrest

A Plymouth Township man has been charged with kidnapping as the result of a child custody battle. He was hiding with his children in northern Michigan.

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

A Plymouth Township man ordered to give up his two children in an international custody battle was arraigned in court on a charge of kidnapping Friday.

Henry Tyszka, 48, was arraigned on two counts of parental kidnapping before Plymouth district Court Judge John MacDonald, and a not guilty plea was entered on his behalf.

A May 3 preliminary exam has been scheduled in district court for Tyszka.

Tyszka was arrested Thursday in Indian River in northern Michigan, after a Michigan State Police fugitive team sent photos of Tyszka and the two children to area news stations, said Plymouth Township Police Sgt. Steve Rapson.

"Somebody recognized him and tipped off the sheriff's department in Cheboygan County," Rapson said. Tyszka was located at a rented house.

Rapson said authorities are seeking to put the children on an airplane back to their mother in Paris, France, as ordered by Michigan courts.

Meanwhile, the defense attorney is seeking to have the children remain in Michigan. They are now under the care of the Wayne County Circuit Court, to testify at the preliminary exam in May.

Tyszka was released on $2,000 cash bond. He faces a maximum penalty of one year in jail.

The story opened just after Christmas, when Tyszka did not put the children ages 7 and 10 on an airplane to return to their mother in France.

The father, a special education teacher in Garden City, said the children have told him the mother whips them.

"My children came to me to protect them," Tyszka said in February.

Pond concern

Pond concern: A former Plymouth Township resident is alarmed by unfenced ponds like the one above near Fox Pointe subdivision. The concern is that children could wander into one of them.

Parents worry about unfenced ponds

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

Do unfenced ponds in west Plymouth Township subdivisions pose a danger to young children that should be addressed?

That question was raised recently by a prospective home buyer and discussed by township trustees at their April 9 meeting.

Mike Moran, who is now living in Northville with his family, said he considered buying a home in the Fox Pointe subdivision, near the southeast corner of Ridge and Beck roads.

"I totally understand why homeowners associations don't want fences, debris gets caught in them when the wind blows," he said.

Still, Moran said he has two boys ages 4 and 6. "I was a little boy once; those ponds are a magnet," he said.

"I don't know if you can totally protect your children. I don't know if my wife and I are smarter parents than anyone else," Moran said. Still, he questioned the notion that the aesthetics of a neighborhood should outweigh concerns over kids' safety.

Moran said that while visiting

Fox Pointe recently, he talked to some parents who live there, adding some of the parents also had concerns about unfenced ponds.

Now, Moran said he's seeking to buy a home in another township subdivision where the pond is farther away from the home.

Senior housing plan gets township approval

BY JEFF COUNTS

A 175-unit senior citizen living complex could open by April 1997 at the site of the Plymouth Hilton Hotel, later a Radisson, on Northville Road near the M-14 freeway, if all goes according to plans given preliminary approval on Wednesday by Plymouth Township.

The PM Group expects to break ground for the project in August.

The hotel closed nearly five years ago and since then there have been break-ins and vandalism at the property. There have been concerns that the building was looking run down and Plymouth Township officials have been trying to find a developer for the property.

There were no serious objections raised by residents about the project at a public hearing held on Wednesday by the Plymouth Township

Planning Commission.

"There are some concerns about the fence around the parking lot across from our building. We've tried to fix it, but it's rotted," said Thomas McGhie, asset manager of The PM Group. "We're looking for a solution."

However, he said that the project has generally been well accepted in the Plymouth area.

He said plans call for renovating the 199-bed hotel into a structure that will contain 175 dwelling units for senior citizens, most of whom are in their 80s.

"There won't be any parking problems because most of the residents don't have cars," he said.

The project was put together by Ann Arbor architects Hobbs and Black Associates Inc. It includes renovation of the five-story hotel

Earth Day events slated

Maybury State Park is hosting Earth Day programs at the park located on Eight Mile, one mile west of Beck Road.

The events are Saturday, April 27, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Activities for adults and children include nature hikes, a scavenger hunt, and earth-craft activities. Valvoline Oil of Novi is sponsoring a "Big Wheel" race course for kids at 1 p.m. Prizes and trophies will be awarded. They will also have a Valvoline race car and driver on site, as well as a recycling station for used antifreeze, motor oil and filters.

BFI-Arbor Hills will sponsor a kite-fly and an environmental display. There will also be many other activities and displays, sponsored by Moraine Elementary in Northville and the Friends of Maybury State Park.

Also, there will be a 10k run at the park. On-site registration is available. For an entry form or further information, contact Northville Parks and Recreation at 810-349-0203.

During May, Maybury will host other programs.

Farm stories

Monthly "Farm Stories" will be told at 11 a.m. May 4, and 3 p.m. May 5. The theme is baby animals. The story telling will be in the farm's Demonstration Building and will be followed by a short guided walk around the barnyard to visit some of the newest arrivals. There is no charge. A state park motor vehicle permit is required for entry to the park. Additional information about programs or facilities may be obtained by calling the park office at 810-349-8390.

Sheep shearing

See what it was like in the old days when farmers sheared their sheep in the spring. Maybury Farm will hold its annual sheep shearing and wool spinning demonstrations from 1-4 p.m. May 11, 12, 19. The program will take place in the Demonstration Building.

Farm hours are 8 a.m.-5 p.m. daily. A state park motor vehicle permit is required for entry to the park. Additional information about programs or facilities may be obtained by calling the park office at 810-349-8390.

Delegate workshop set

If you've ever considered becoming a precinct delegate, there's a workshop scheduled just for you.

At 6 p.m. Thursday at the Water Club Grill, questions on delegates' responsibilities, time commitment and others will be answered in a relaxed seminar put on by the Plymouth Republican Club.

Dinner is optional. For more information, call Tom Hickey at 455-7110.

Five appointed to board

The Plymouth Township board of trustees approved the following appointments to the township zoning board of appeals at the trustees meeting recently.

Appointed to terms ending Dec. 31, 1996 were Donald Sprogell and Patrick McCarthy. Appointed to terms ending Dec. 31, 1997 are Greg Williams and Jim Ventitelli. Ron Griffith was appointed to a term ending Dec. 31, 1998.

Novi Home Show, the thief went on a buying spree that included a $6,000 charge at a major discount store and $300 worth of hams. Within a two-day period, the thief racked up over $20,000 in charges and forged checks.

"They were able to do a fair amount of shopping - Borders, Winkelman's, Honey Baked Hams, Beauty Supply, Fretter Appliances, Home Depot, Best Buy, Clyde Carpet.

The thief altered Horn's license, imposing her own picture. "It looked professional enough where this person could now go out and open new instant credit cards and use the checks that were in my purse," said Horn.

It all started with a 15-minute break. Horn thought she had hidden her purse well in the booth, even covering it with pillows. She discovered the theft when she went to retrieve something from her purse a few hours later.

With the stolen license and social security card, the thief was able to obtain instant credit. Seldom did anyone check the similarities of signatures. Horn has a very distinct signature.

"My plea to business owners is to check signatures. The businesses at which she charged or cashed checks are out of the money."

Inadvertently, one business, Pier One, put an end to the purse snatcher's shopping spree. They had overcharged and called Native West to notify "Annette Horn" of the mistake. Horn said she never made the purchase.

Charges dropped in rape

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW

Canton police dropped charges Friday against the man believed to have raped a Canton woman in her home Dec. 28 after the woman refused to testify.

Cleotha Woods Jr., 31, of Detroit had been charged with first degree criminal sexual conduct, punishable by life in prison, home invasion and felony firearm use.

Canton Police Detective Gerry Hardesty subpoenaed the woman to testify in a 35th District Court preliminary exam Friday, a necessary step in sending Woods to Circuit Court for trial.

The woman told Hardesty by phone Thursday night that she would not testify. "She doesn't want anything more to do with it," Hardesty told District Judge John MacDonald.

The judge asked if the police wanted him to compel the woman to testify.

"It would be of benefit to the police department, (but) it would be traumatic for her," Hardesty said.

In dismissing the charges, MacDonald said, "I'm not happy with this. I'll tell you that right now."

Police believe Woods is the man who surprised a couple in their 60s the night of Dec. 28 as they pulled into their driveway on Warren Road just east of Napier in western Canton.

The home is near the border with Plymouth Township.

Library to move to Farmer Jack site by June

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The Plymouth District Library is slated to move June 4 or 5 to a temporary spot, the former Farmer Jack's supermarket on Main Street.

"It looks like we'll probably close down and begin moving the first full week of June," said Library Director Pat Thomas. "We're still antic we'll be closed to the public about two weeks, I'm hoping a little less than that," she said.

But before the Dunning-Hough Library is closed in early June and books and materials move to a temporary site, a tribute program is planned.

From 1-3 p.m. Sunday, the Friends of the Library are inviting interested library patrons to reminisce, share old photos and just remember the library.

"We thought it would be an appropriate idea to have a sort of farewell party, we wanted to be careful not to cast it in negative tones," Thomas said.

■ 'We'll be grouping this in kind of the same way.'

Pat Thomas
—Library director

The temporary library site, Thomas said, "will open just in time for people to sign up for summer reading programs."

She said the plan is to pretty much replicate the current library layout in the new building.

"We'll be grouping things in kind of the same way. Basically there will be a big front space that will be the public area," she said, adding public space at the former supermarket is 12,000 square feet, about the same as at Dunning-Hough.

Back rooms will be for staff and storage. Other features of the library will continue at the temporary site — book stacks, computers, youth materials, the reference collection, magazine room, video rentals and more.

Will there be more parking? "We're certainly going to see," Thomas said. While the east-central lot that serves the Dunning Hough Library has 110-120 spaces, the lot also serves the Penn Theater and some businesses. "I would think it would be adequate, and there won't be any parking meters" she said.

At the open house on Sunday, those attending will be provided cards on which to write memories of the Dunning-Hough Library for a historical record. "We're inviting former staff, city officials, anyone we can think of who might want to come," Thomas said.

Work has already started to turn the former supermarket into a library. "We've had the floor cleaned and they're putting up partitions, there's a bit of cleanup to do," Thomas said. One thing to look into is covering up the large front windows to keep the inside from becoming over-heated in warm weather.

The library will be donated by like-new carpet tiles donated by the Canton Library.

Thomas is scheduled to address the tribute to the Dunning-Hough Library at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Construction on a new library, on the site of the Dunning-Hough Library, is expected to begin this summer and be completed in 1998.

Author charms readers

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

Noted author Nicholas Delbanco charmed a room of friends of the library Thursday as he helped raise money for Friends of the Library chapters in Plymouth, Canton, Northville and Novi.

Delbanco was the featured speaker at the annual event hosted by four Friends of the Library chapters. More than 100 people paid $18 each to attend the event at Fox Hills Country Club in Salem Township. The event was sponsored by the Observer and HomeTown Newspapers.

Delbanco, author of 16 books, including the most recent "In The Name Of Mercy," began his presentation by reading from the writings of Ford Madox Ford, an early 20th-century British literary magazine publisher.

Delbanco explained in detail how Ford recognized talent in the first paragraph of the first story that T.H. Lawrence had published, a story entitled "Odor of Chysanthemums." Ford "had a wonderful eye and a wonderful sense to predict what would last," Delbanco said, but "Odor of Chysanthemums" was not his best work.

"I read the rest of the story, and the first paragraph is far better."

In discussing his own books, Delbanco referred to the lengthy introduction provided him by Observer Newspapers Publisher Banks Dishmon. "Mercifully, the introduction ended before he listed every damn book I've ever written," he said.

Delbanco threatened to continue reading when he opened the floor to questions.

"If there's silence, I warn you," he said, "I've got 24 pages."

When a group of students got up and left to return to school, Delbanco said, "I flatter myself that they actually had an appointment to go to."

In writing "In The Name Of Mercy," which bore the working title of "Doctor Death," Delbanco said he collaborated with his brother, "who is a doctor and impersonates one much more successfully than I can." Between them they invented several diabolical murder methods for the book.

Delbanco's books have never been wildly popular, but he finds comfort in knowing that neither were those of Upton Sinclair and Stephen Crane when they produced "Lord Jim" and "Red Badge of Courage" in the first decade of the 20th century.

"I like to think that time is on our side," he said. Asked if he writes by hand or by word processor, Delbanco indicated the latter. "My handwriting is wholly illegible. I can't read what I write, let alone expect anyone else to," he said.

Delbanco's output was voluminous in the beginning, as he produced 10 books by the time he was 35. "I didn't realize how hard writing novels was," he said. "I just wrote them."

The author's next book is a collaborative effort with Alan Chouse called "Talking Horse," a collection of previously unpublished works by Bernard Malamud.

Plymouth resident Michele Balluff said Delbanco "was intelligent, interesting and entertaining."

Plymouth resident Judy Morgan said "I haven't read his book, but it sounds interesting."

Michele Fecht of Northville said, "I have two small children, so when can I read?" she said.

Mingling: Noted author Nicholas Delbanco of the University of Michigan autographs one of his many books for Dee Crawford of Plymouth, while Karen Olson of Northville awaits her turn.

PLYMOUTH BRIEFS

White cane drive

The Plymouth Lions Club will hold its White Cane Drive Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27, at intersections and selected retail stores in Plymouth. Contributions for the blind are being solicited. In case of rain, the drive will happen May 3 and 4.

Garden and flower sale

A Victorian Garden and Flower Sale is scheduled for the weekends of May 3-5 and 10-12 to raise money for the Plymouth Historical Museum.

The sale is happening thanks to Suzanne Kreuger, owner of the Victorian Gallery. The museum will be in charge of the flower sale and will keep proceeds.

Lincoln collection

The Plymouth Historical Museum is seeking to raise $150,000 to acquire, preserve and display the Weldon Petz Lincoln Collection.

The collection amassed over 60 years includes a wide range of items. It has been shown at the museum.

The opportunity for young students to have access to this collection is the primary motivation for the acquisition effort.

The Plymouth Historical Museum-Lincoln Acquisition Fund is accepting pledges. Checks can be made payable to the fund, and mailed to the museum at 155 S. Main St., Plymouth, 48170.

WSDP auction

The Plymouth-Canton schools student-run radio station WSDP, 88.1 FM, will conduct its annual auction from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, May 11.

Money raised will go toward new emergency alert system equipment as the Emergency Broadcast System is being replaced and broadcasters are required to update equipment.

Money raised will also contribute to the station and scholarships. The station transmitter needs replacement. Businesses interested in donating should contact the station at 416-7732.

Secretary's day

The annual Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce Community Development Team will host the chamber's annual Secretary's Day Luncheon on Wednesday from noon-1:30 p.m. at the Water Club Grill on Ann Arbor Road.

Cost is $16 per person. Every secretary-assistant will receive a flower and has a chance to win a door prize or be selected "Secretary of the Day." There will also be a fashion show. Reservations should be made by Friday by calling 453-1540.

Munfakh appointed

Able Munfakh of Plymouth Township has been appointed to the State Board of Professional Engineers.

The board provides for the registration of persons practicing engineers, set qualifications for registration and prescribes penalties for violations of state laws. Members are appointed with advice and consent of the state Senate.

Munfakh is a former Plymouth Township Board member.

Mayflower production

Another play production is coming to the Mayflower.

Entertaining People Productions, which staged its first dinner theater in March at the Mayflower, will perform another production on Saturday, April 27, at the hotel.

The group will stage "A funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Mayflower" at 7:15 p.m. The lay is a comedy/mystery. Seating starts at 6:30 p.m. For more information, call 453-1620.

Food drive

Plymouth members of the National Association of Letter Carriers in conjunction with the U.S. Postal Service are helping to sponsor a National Food Drive May 6-11.

During that week, non-perishable food items can be left at the Clipper Post Office off of Beck Road, the Penniman Post Office, Plymouth Cultural Center, Danny's Foods on Main Street, or Kroger's on Sheldon Road at Ann Arbor Road.

On Saturday, May 11, non-perishable food items can also be left next to your mailbox before 10 a.m. Letter carriers will pick them up when mail is delivered.

Last year more than 10,000 pounds of food items were collected for distribution within the Plymouth area. The food will be donated to the Plymouth Salvation Army food bank.

Self reliance

A new Plymouth business, Personal Growth Imagery at 199 N. Main, Suite B1, uses Sports Perso-Namics to allow one to perform sports optimally.

Those who have experienced normal reactions to pressure, fear or stress — an increased pulse rate, upset stomach, watery eyes, fast or shallow breathing or sweaty palms — can benefit from this training.

Sports Perso-Namics methodically evaluates the individual and then utilizes hypnosis and guided imagery to quickly and permanently facilitate change.

"My kids have given up their school, their friends, their toys, everything they had in France in order not to continue to be abused."

An attorney for the mother took Tyszka to Wayne County Circuit Court to have the children returned, and Judge Brian Zahara in February ruled in her favor, as did the state court of appeals.

Plymouth Township police in February sought to talk with Tyszka and attorneys on both sides to resolve the issue, but Tyszka had gone underground.

While Tyszka has maintained the children's mother whips them, "He never came in to report it," township Police Chief Carl Berry said last month.

"Secondly, he did not tell anybody this had transpired until he had to send the kids back," Berry said, adding the father has not produced any photographic or physical evidence that the kids have been whipped.

"All I am asking is that someone here, anyone, talk to the kids about the abuse," Tyszka said last month.

structure and demolition of the lobby and banquet facilities.

New construction to the north entails a 51-unit, three-story apartment building and a one-story lobby-dining room linking the existing hotel and the three-story building.

The pool area will be demolished in favor of a landscaped garden area for residents.

Future plans incorporate a 48-unit independent living apartment building to the south of the current hotel.

"The primary target area for residents is the Plymouth area," said McGhie. "We found that seniors want to be close to their sons and daughters and will move to the area."

However, there are still a few building-related issues to solve before construction can start. There were concerns raised by Plymouth Township building officials over the look of the building. They want it to have a residential look.

"I think we can satisfy the officials," said McGhie.

Township engineer Mike Bailey said the ponds, called detention basins, were established for most township subdivisions west of Sheldon Road as flood control devices.

"When it rains and you have undeveloped property, the large majority of the water soaks into the soil," he said. But in developed areas, rain runs off of driveways, rooftops and other paved areas. "You consequently get a larger volume of water that runs off the property."

Detention basins store water for a time so the flow of water simulates the flow when the property was undeveloped. "Some of them want to have a permanent level of water as a sight feature," Bailey said. Permanent detention ponds with a permanent water level can be as deep as 7 or 8 feet in the middle after a storm.

The township has set standards for permanent ponds, including slope standards - 1 foot vertical for every 6 feet of horizontal distance. Someone wading into the pond "can appreciate the fact it's getting deeper, obviously that's not fail safe in every case but that's the theory behind it," Bailey said.

"The township park has those types of slopes, I don't know if anyone finds that to be an attractive nuisance," he said.

The few fenced ponds in the township are near industrial parks. "If you see them you know why they pick up debris and weeds tend to grow, they don't get maintained as well." For pond slopes steeper than 1 foot vertical for 6 feet horizontal, a fence is required.

■ 'There is a lot of water all over the place. You just can't watch kids 24 hour.'

K.C. Mueller
—board member

Unfenced detention ponds are common in other communities. In South Lyon, ponds steeper than 1 foot vertical for 4 feet of horizontal space must be fenced.

"We don't fence our streets so kids can't walk in the streets," said South Lyon Building Official Joe Veltri. "If you are going to move somewhere and there is a pond behind the property and you have small children, I wouldn't move there," he said.

Trustee K.C. Mueller passed on Moran's concern about detention ponds at the April 9 trustees meeting. "I understand that a toddler could drown," he said.

"We are an open community. I like to keep the open feeling. This is a tough call."

Trustee Charles Curran said he grew up in Plymouth, and noted that while there's plenty of open water in the community, he couldn't recall any kids drowning. "Teach your children that water has its hazards," he said.

Township Building Director Charles McIlhargey said studies show that 89 percent of kids who drown do so in home pools.

"There is a lot of water all over the place."

How, when to file for state, national offices

Seats in the U.S. Senate, U.S. House of Representatives, state House of Representatives and on boards of state universities are among the elected offices up for grabs this fall.

The filing deadline to put a name on the ballot for the August primary is 4 p.m. May 14.

To file to run for the U.S. Senate, candidates must file a petition with the Bureau of Elections, 4th Floor of the Mutual Building, 208 N. Capitol, Lansing.

The petition must have a minimum of 16,344 and a maximum of 65,375 valid signatures to run in the Republican primary, and a minimum of 14,169 and a maximum of 56,874 valid signatures to run in the Democratic primary.

To run without party affiliation, a minimum of 30,891 signatures are needed, and the petition must include at least 100 signatures from each of at least eight congressional districts in the state.

Filing for Congress

To seek a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives a candidate must file a petition at the county clerk's office, or if the district crosses county lines, with the Secretary of State at the Bureau of Elections on the 4th floor of the Mutual Building, 208 N. Capitol in Lansing.

A petition to file in the 11th congressional district requires a minimum of 1,456 and a maximum of 5,823 valid signatures for the Republican primary and a minimum of 884 and a maximum of 3,534 signatures to run in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 4,696 signatures.

To file in the 13th congressional district, a candidate needs a minimum of 921 and a maximum of 3,680 to run in the Republican primary, and a minimum of 872 and a maximum of 3,487 to run in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 3,633 signatures.

State House filing

A candidate for the Michigan House can file by petition or $100 fee at the Wayne County clerk's office in the City-County Building on Jefferson Avenue in Detroit, or if the district crosses county lines, with the Bureau of Elections in Lansing.

To file by petition instead of a fee, a candidate in the 16th District needs a minimum of 199 and a maximum of 793 signatures to run in the Republican primary, and a minimum of 125 and a maximum of 498 signatures to run in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs 648 petition signatures.

To file in the 17th District, a candidate needs a minimum of 100 and a maximum of 398 to file in the Republican primary and a minimum of 136 and a maximum of 541 to file in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 479 valid signatures.

To file in the 18th District, a candidate needs a minimum of 135 and a maximum of 539 to file as a Republican and a minimum of 103 and a maximum of 410 signatures to file in the Democratic primary. Without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 489 signatures.

To file in the 19th District, a candidate needs a minimum of 206 and a maximum of 823 signatures to run in the Republican primary and a minimum of 123 and a maximum of 491 to run in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 660 valid signatures.

To file in the 20th District, a candidate needs a minimum of 271 and a maximum of 1,081 signatures to run in the Republican primary and a minimum of 126 and a maximum of 500 to run in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 798 valid signatures. To file in the 21st District, a candidate needs a minimum of 162 and a maximum of 647 signatures to run in the Republican primary and a minimum of 105 and a maximum of 417 to run in the Democratic primary. To run without party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 537 valid signatures.

Education posts

To run for the state board of education, the University of Michigan Board of Regents, the Michigan State University Board of Trustees or the Wayne State University Board of Governors, a Democratic or Republican candidate must be nominated at the state convention.

To file without out party affiliation, a candidate needs a minimum of 30,891 signatures, which is 1 percent of the total vote cast for governor. The petitions must include at least 100 signatures from each of at least eight congressional districts in the state. The deadline to file is 4 p.m. July 18 to be included on the general election ballot. These races aren't included in the August primary.

WHEN TEETH CRACK

Dentists often warn their patients to avoid biting down on such hard objects as ice and unpopped popcorn kernels because doing so can lead to cracked teeth. At first, patients may not immediately realize that they have cracked a tooth; this realization usually comes later, when biting down on the affected tooth produces a sudden, piercing pain or there is a new sensitivity to heat and cold. Even though the crack may not be visible to the patient, such symptoms should warrant a visit to the dentist for an examination. After the dentist pinpoints the problem, it usually can be remedied with a crown or onlay to protect the chewing surface and hold the tooth together. In some cases, root canal therapy may be necessary. In any case, treatment is necessary because cracks do not heal on their own.

At LIVONIA VILLAGE DENTAL ASSOCIATES, we are happy to answer any and all questions you may have about crowns or onlays, bridges and dentures, and cosmetic dentistry, as well as routine dental care. In our relaxed, warm, and friendly office, located at 19171 Merriman Road, we provide the excellent dental care you deserve. Please call 478-2110 to schedule a convenient appointment. House OKs measures to aid terminally ill

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

State legislators are moving on three fronts to help the chronically and terminally ill and provide fewer customers for Dr. Jack Kevorkian. So far, the bills are winning overwhelming approval.

First is licensing hospices so they can care for the terminally ill in places other than the patient's home. The House has passed the bills sponsored by Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth.

Second is the "dignified death act" — changing emergency procedures to honor dying persons' "do not resuscitate" wishes. The bills are nearly ready for Gov. John Engler's signature.

Third is pain management, a more complicated set of bills that Rep. John Jamian, R-Bloomfield Township, hopes to see adopted by summer.

"Before we start debate on Kevorkian and assisted suicide, we need to get these out," said Jamian, chair of the House Health Policy Committee. "People are going to Kevorkian because they couldn't get pain relief. For those who specialize in the terminally ill, these make it easier for them to manage pain instead of going to Kevorkian."

He spoke on the House floor April 17 even as Kevorkian, a retired pathologist from West Bloomfield, was on trial in Oakland Circuit Court for assisting in the deaths of two terminally ill persons.

Hospice licenses

The House approved 100-0 two bills by Law to set up a licensing system for residential hospices.

"Right now, hospices are licensed only for home care or as a supplement to home care," said Law. "But a lot of people don't have anyone who can help care for them at home."

"Only a hospital or nursing home can give residential care. The nursing home law is written for people who might get well. This creates a new license for residential hospice. You can't just open up a hospice home."

House Bill 5491 sets up a separate licensing procedure. House bill 5490 excludes a medicare-certified hospice from the definition of a nursing home.

The House approved 100-0 two bills by State Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth Township, to set up a licensing system for residential hospices.

Law worked with officials of Angela Hospice, operated by the Felician Sisters in Livonia. "Angela had to get a license under the nursing home statute," he said. Raj Weiner, who headed the Public Health Department in the Blanchard Administration, helped write the act, he added.

The bills make it unnecessary for applicants to go through the "certificate of need" process before getting a license. "It's time for this industry to have its own license," Law said.

All local legislators voted yes except Reps. Jan Dolan, R-Farmington Hills, and Shirley Johnson, R-Royal Oak, who were absent.

Dignified death

The House Wednesday moved to third reading (ready for a final vote) three bills amending the emergency medical procedures to honor patients' "do not resuscitate" wishes.

"EMS (emergency medical service) and police have state mandates," said Jamian. "On a regular basis, EMS technicians are dispatched to a scene where a terminally ill patient has died. In a hospital setting, the available staff would be in a position to know that emergency CPR (resuscitation) should not be administered. EMS technicians don't have that advantage."

Senate Bills 712-715 would allow patients and their physicians to execute a legal document (do not resuscitate order) instructing EMS technicians to withhold CPR in a non-hospital setting.

workers need to feel free to provide necessary amounts of pain medications without fear of being accused of assisting in suicide or euthanasia. The bill will provide a carefully-crafted legal immunity for that purpose.

Sponsors are Sens. Dale Shugars, R-Portage, and John J.H. Schwarz, R-Battle Creek. Jamian worked on similar bills in the House but chose to finish with the Senate-passed bills.

Pain management

"We need better procedures for doctors to treat the terminally ill," said Jamian, who expects to have his bills ready in three or four weeks.

"Physicians and health care

"Other laws regarding access to, and prescribing, controlled substances also hinder the appropriate use of pain medications. This bill will address those obstacles.

"Finally, education of health professionals and the general public is an ongoing need. The legislation will set up a pain commission which will focus on spreading the word about the quality pain management options available," Jamian said.

Dancers keep in step Irish style at Sunday event

BY M.B. DILLON
STAFF WRITER

For many, St. Patrick's Irish Spring Festival is a must on the social calendar, not only because it's for such a worthy cause, but because it's so much fun.

Set for Sunday, April 28, the extravaganza of music, dance, games, cuisine, crafts and camaraderie supports St. Pat's food program, which assists thousands of senior citizens and homeless in Detroit's Cass corridor.

A Who's Who in Irish entertainment donates its time at the all-day event. Such is the respect for the work of Fr. Thomas Duffey and Sr. Mary Watson.

This year is no exception, as two generations of the Heinzman family get into the act at St. Pat's, located behind Orchestra Hall on Parsons off Woodward.

In addition to the well-known Livonia-based Kitty Moran-

Heinzman Ceili Dancers, Heinzman's children John, 31, and Elizabeth, 29, will perform a reel or a slip jig or two.

The Westland residents may be joined by yet a third generation — the children they teach at Detroit's Gaelic League, and in Wyandotte.

The step-dancers' handmade costumes are like ice cream for the eyes. A riot of color, the traditional dresses made by Marie Riley of Canton, and kilts made by Novi's Sadie O'Boyle, are embroidered by Emiko Roll of Canton.

The Heinzman siblings recently started their own dance school after being recruited by the Downriver Irish-American Club.

"It started with people in Wyandotte approaching us. They wanted someone to teach," said John, who for nine years managed the Little Caesars at Ann Arbor Road and Sheldon in Plymouth. "These parents always see the Polish children dancing in the Fourth of July parade" and wanted equal time.

They got it. The Heinzmans and/or their proteges — among them a Saturday morning class from Toledo — have performed in venues ranging from Eriksson Elementary in Canton to Bowling Green University, Henry Ford's Fair Lane estate and the Grosse Ile Azalea Festival.

The siblings are in the midst of becoming certified, a grueling exercise that includes a three-day test given by the Irish Dancing Teachers Association of North America "harder than any test we ever took in college," say the Heinzmans.

Teaching has been more enjoyable than Liz Heinzman, who began dancing at the age of 3, ever expected.

"It was just fun to dance. I never considered teaching until they called. But the kids are funny. They are so focused, and give you their undivided attention for an hour," said the former Canton resident, an electronic technician at Detroit Edison.

The Heinzmans have earned the Irish dancing equivalent of football's Heisman Trophy.

Secretary's Day calls for a treat

Office workers take note: National Secretary's Day is Wednesday, April 24 — and furthermore, this whole week, April 22-26, is National Secretaries Week!

Sure an appreciation card signed by the whole department is good. A vibrant spring bouquet is even better. But according to Karen MacDonald, a spokeswoman for the Taubman Company (which owns Lakeside, Fairlane, Twelve Oaks and Briarwood malls) an "untraditional gift" from one of their many stores is best!

MacDonald suggests these inspired gems:

1. An indoor basketball hoop to mount over the office garbage can, $4, at Kaybee Toy & Hobby stores. "These bring a welcome sense of humor to the workplace."
2. A wooden sunflower birdhouse from Hallmark, $18. "A fitting way to say thank you to a secretary who rules the roost so well and watches over the office like a hawk on a daily basis."
3. A wine and cheese picnic basket from Lechters Housewares, $25. "Great for weekend afternoons spent far away from the office phones."
4. An FM scan radio that looks like a computer mouse from The Sharper Image, $25. "This itty-bitty radio is smaller than a bottle of Liquid Paper and clips to clothing to free your hands — perfect for gals who like to walk on their lunch hours."
5. A set of two scented fabric-covered hangers from Crabtree & Evelyn, $12. "For those wonderful days when you don't need to hang around the office."
6. Half-dozen egg-shaped soaps from Origins, $18. "It's no yolk. Each of these soaps in the carton box has a different scent, such as vanilla, magnolia and cinnamon . . . a great way to say thanks for unscrambling all those office messages and walking on eggshells around touchy clients."
7. A mini metal photo album from Things Remembered, $15. "For all the pictures secretaries share with co-workers at the office."
8. A movie video about office life from Suncoast Motion Picture Company, $10-$15. "9-to-5" with Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin and Dolly Parton is all about getting even with the boss; "Desk Set" with Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn, a romantic comedy about office workers who fear they'll be replaced by computers; or "Working Girl" with Harrison Ford, Melanie Griffith and Sigourney Weaver, about one secretary's experience with life in the corporate jungle."

The Desk Set

MacDonald quotes a Hallmark study that found there are more than 3.4 million secretaries powering the workforce, and about 1-percent of them are men. The observance was proclaimed in 1952 by a male secretary, Charles Sawyer, who was then Secretary of Commerce.

A key purpose of the week as outlined by the National Secretaries Association, (which is now called Professional Secretaries International) is to "bring recognition to secretaries for their vital role in business."

Janice Morrow a secretary in the management office at Livonia Mall pondered her choices for the perfect Secretary's Day gift.

"Well, it's always nice when the boss gives me a mall gift certificate," she said. "That way I can pick out something I need, or treat myself to something fun."

Sandy Olzark secretary to the Eccentric Newspapers advertising department agreed, and offered additional suggestions.

"Gift certificates to a restaurant or shop are a great idea and appreciated," she said. "But I also like flowers, perfume, good books, a gift certificate for a massage, manicure, pedicure, facial etc. I know these are personal items, but that's what I prefer. I know other secretaries who would not want such personal gifts. An office should know its secretary and give gifts that suit that person."

Dissenting views

Diane Kratz, a secretary at the General Motors Tech Center in Warren offered an alternative viewpoint.

"I took an informal poll of our secretaries and found that most of us don't like the idea of Secretary's Day. We don't like the gifts. All employees are important to a company. Why just signal out the secretaries?"

For traditionalists, Godiva Chocolatier has boxed assortments (the classic gold Ballotin boxes have a special Secretary's Week ribbon). The Coach Store has leather organizers, wallets and tote cases, and just about everyone has coffee mugs, pen sets and picture frames.

And remember: Better call ahead for lunch reservations on Wednesday — so many offices treat their secretaries to an appreciation meal that the lines are long!

Retail career night: focuses on business

Retailers spoke of long hours, ever-changing playing fields and hours of number-crunching to students interested in the business, but agreed they wouldn't have it any other way.

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

There's a lot more to a career in retail than scanning charge cards, saying "Have A Nice Day," and counting the cash drawer at the end of each day.

Sometimes you get to meet the President of the United States, sometimes you get to travel to Japan, and sometimes you can take a store from $800,000 to $5 million in just one year.

Those were just a few of the messages retail professionals related to Madonna University merchandising management students last week during a career night co-sponsored by the Livonia Marriott and Laurel Park Place.

"The retail job market in this area has never been better because major players like Parisian, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus and Home Depot, have discovered Detroit, noting we have lots of people with lots of money to spend here," Kathleen Richards, director of merchandising management at Madonna, told the gathering.

"And retail jobs will increase when the Somerset Collection (North) opens in August adding 150 new stores. Many experienced retailers will jump over to Somerset, creating many new openings all over town for buyers, department managers and sales associates.

"The retail industry will always need people," she added. "No matter how automated we get, computers can't buy merchandise at marketplace or manage and motivate a sales force."

Guest speakers included Michelle Antinozzi, a fashion buyer at Gantos; Kristen Komden, an area manager at Jacobson's; Renee Blaszkowski district manager for Ann Taylor; Tina Spencer department manager at Parisian; and Susan Azar, marketing director at Laurel Park Place.

Antinozzi kicked-off her presentation with a video of Gantos' recent awards banquet/fashion show.

"I'm happy to report that Gantos, which has been in Chapter 11, just posted its second profitable year with 1995 sales up three times over 1994," she said. "We started as a hosiery company in Grand Rapids in 1932 during the Depression, went public in 1987, and now under the founder's son Theodore Gantos, we've got 113 stores in 23 states, and five outlet boutiques."

Antinozzi discussed her duties as buyer of accessories, gifts and handbags. She explained the nuances of shopping the wholesale marketplaces in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, negotiating prices with vendors, arranging delivery dates, and all the headaches that come from merchandise that arrives in the wrong size, color or damaged.

She described 50 to 60-hour work weeks and the risky business of markdowns. She said Gantos owed its turn around to a focus on the missy and junior customer — and finding the right clothing at the right price.

"Business is always changing, the hair accessory that everyone wants today is not what everyone wants tomorrow. You've got to study the sales figures, lifestyle trends, and talk to your buyers in other departments."

She said buyer salaries typically start at $30,000.

Analyzing sales figures, crunching numbers and challenging vendors is only part of what Renee Blaszkowski does as district manager of nine Ann Taylor stores.

She got her retail wings through various positions with The Gap. Her favorite job was opening the Providence, Rhode Island Gap store next to Brown University when Amy Carter was a student there.

"I met the President Jimmy Carter, Amy Carter, and boy did those secret service agents buy a lot of Gap clothing," she recalled. "Eventually opened 11 stores for the Gap in four years when CEO Mickey Drexler believed the Gap should be like 7-11 with a store on every corner."

"It seems in the '80s, people shopped with their pockets open — sales were phenomenal. One store went from $800,000 to $5 million in just one year."

She said she joined Ann Taylor after meeting CEO Sally Kasaks in New York and hearing about her vision for the company and her desire to empower other women to achieve their business goals.

Blaszkowski said it's no mystery that the retail world is filled with women, but men typically control most decision-making at the top.

"Ann Taylor offers suits and separates for the business woman," she said, explaining that the name was chosen to suggest the type of merchandise within. "Suits are always up front in all our stores," she said.

"I visit each of the stores under my jurisdiction every 10 days to lead, coach, challenge and energize my sales force. I fill management vacancies quickly, keep staff levels up, answer every customer letter, develop training and action plans, prepare profit/loss statements for each store, pay expenses and meet payroll."

"A district manager has to make sure each of the stores in the chain are clean and well-presented because we're indirectly telling women that we can take care of them, too."

Blaszkowski pointed out that retail work requires a lot more physical exertion than most people expect.

"You're on your feet for long periods of time and you're always bending, stretching, moving clothing racks, and cleaning." She advised retail newcomers to search out mentors and watch how they motivate, solve problems and manage people. She credited several managers with inspiring her retail career. She advised starting out in low volume stores where an employee learns all aspects of retail by wearing many hats.

Azar of Laurel Park Place in Livonia discussed her career switch from advertising to marketing and all the challenges of promoting a mid-size mall.

"My job is both exhausting and exhilarating," she said. "I love the creative aspect of coming up with new ideas for promotions. Our ad slogan is 'Laurel Park Place: We're just the right size.' We analyzed the competition and positioned ourselves accordingly."

Azar organizes workshops for tenants, oversees the center's comment card service (which has processed some 5,000 comments from shoppers), administers programs that support the community (the mall recently awarded $2,500 in scholarships to three high school seniors), and monitors seasonal shopper bonus programs where last month 450 customers redeemed receipts totalling $150 to earn a gardening tool set, generating mall sales of $90,000.

Area managers Tina Spencer and Kristen Komlen advocated retail internships where real industry lessons can be learned. They both stressed "people skills" for anyone with thoughts of retail management.

Madonna University in Livonia offers a Bachelor of Science degree or Associate degree in Merchandising Management with specialization in either Fashion or General Retail. For more details about the program call (313) 432-5533.

SC will offer math tutoring

A series of small group math tutoring sessions is available for students in grades 1-6 at Schoolcraft College this spring. Sessions are limited to five students. The program is offered in one-hour blocks at 4, 5 and 6 p.m. beginning Thursday, April 25. To register or for more information, call Schoolcraft College's Continuing Education Services office at (313) 462-4413. Schoolcraft College is at 18600 Haggerty Road, between Six and Seven Mile roads.

'Plate challenge' is under way

The Great State Plate Challenge, a license plate design contest, will run throughout May to select a design to symbolize the "beauty of Michigan."

The challenge, which is open to Michigan residents, is being sponsored by the Secretary of State's office, the Michigan Travel Bureau and Farmer Jack, Kmart and Spartan Stores Inc. "It is time for a license plate that symbolizes the beauty of Michigan," Secretary of State Candice S. Miller said. "I can think of no better group of people to help us design it than Michigan residents."

"Beauty is in the eye of the beholder and that is why we are inviting anyone and everyone who has an opinion . . . to submit a design," Miller said.

The challenge begins May 1, with entry forms available at all Michigan Farmer Jack, Kmart and Spartan stores. Entry forms may also be obtained by sending a self-addressed envelope to: Great State Plate Challenge, Michigan Department of State, 430 W. Allegan, Lansing MI 48918-1195. Entry forms will not be available at Secretary of State branch offices.

Contestants under age 18 need the signature of a parent or guardian. Entries must be submitted on official entry forms and be postmarked by May 31.

All completed entries must be returned to the address listed on the entry form. Secretary of State offices, Farmer Jack, Kmart and Spartan Stores cannot accept completed entry forms.

Rules require that contestants use no more than four colors (in addition to hues of those colors) and that designs or images at or near the letters and numbers on the license plate be subdued so the letters and numbers can be read from any distance. The color of the letters and numbers must contrast with a light background.

Qualifying entries will be judged by Secretary of State employees, with 150 of the best designs judged by a panel of "celebrity judges" that will be announced in May.

The celebrity panel will select 12 semi-finalists, each of whom will be given a $250 gift certificate to the store where the entry form was obtained. The grand prize winner will be selected from among the semi-finalists. In addition, to the privilege of having his or her design appear on the new Michigan license plate, the winner will receive a six-day vacation for a family of four or two adults. The vacation, compliments of the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel in Grand Rapids, the Grand Traverse Resort in Acme and the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island, features a two-night stay at each hotel.

Winners will be announced in the fall. Plans call for the new license plate to go on sale Jan. 2, 1997, and will be sold as an alternative to the blue and white plate for a fee of $5.

TASTE BUDS

CHEF LARRY JANES

Spring brings requests for lighter fare

Spring has certainly sprung and the questions and comments I've been receiving via my voice mail this column indicates you're ready for some lighter ideas in the kitchen. I'll admit, this was a long, cold winter and I'm glad to see spring. I look back at the hearty dishes of winter with warming gratitude but can't wait to get the garden "in," and check out the summer produce arrivals at the Eastern Market and neighboring green grocers.

■ And speaking of the Eastern Market, I talked with Joe Wigley last week, and we're happy to inform you that Wigley's meats (and great corned beef) has reopened as of April 7. Their new location is in the Royal Diamond Market, 3405 Russell, Detroit.

■ Madeline Burton of Birmingham was one of many readers who called to comment on my crock pot column that ran before the holidays. Madeline also requested something lighter, healthier and "springy" that can be made in the crock pot. I know this will be a hit, especially with fresh asparagus coming in to the markets as we speak.

FRESH ASPARAGUS SOUP

- 2 pounds fresh asparagus
- 5 cups homemade or canned chicken broth, defatted
- 4 scallions, chopped
- 2 medium russet or Yukon Gold potatoes, peeled and cubed
- 1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/2 teaspoon fresh ground pepper, preferably white
- 1/2 cup plain non fat yogurt
- 1/2 cup tomatoes, chopped
- Pinch dill

Break off the woody, fibrous ends of the asparagus spears and discard. Rinse the asparagus and cut into 1 inch pieces. Place the asparagus along with the broth, scallions and potatoes in a slow cooker. Cover and cook on the low setting for 6-7 hours or until potatoes are tender. Increase the heat to high. Using a blender or food processor, puree the vegetable solids in batches with a little of the cooking liquid until as smooth as possible. Return to the liquid remaining in the slow cooker. Stir in seasoned salt and pepper. Cover and cook on high for 30 minutes. Serve garnished with plain yogurt, chopped tomatoes and dill. Serves 4.

Recipe from: "The Best Slow Cooker Cookbook Ever" by Natalie Haughton, copyright 1995, Harper Collins, Publishers, $17.95.

■ The Michigan Beef Industry Commission is sponsoring the Michigan Beef Cook-Off. Your original beef recipe could be worth $25,000! Last year, Cynthia Hodges of Ann Arbor was a runner-up. For entry information, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Michigan Beef Industry, 2145 University Park, Suite 300, Okemos, MI 48864 or call (517) 347-0911. Hodges' recipe would be a welcome addition to any spring luncheon menu.

SIRLOIN SALAD WITH DRIED CHERRIES

- 1 boneless beef top sirloin steak, cut 1-inch thick, about 1 1/2 pounds
- 4 small or 2 medium heads Boston lettuce, torn (about 8 cups)
- 1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese
- 1/2 cup dried cherries
- 1/2 cup pine nuts
- Dressing:
 - 1/2 cup olive oil
 - 1/2 cup red wine vinegar
 - 2 cloves garlic, crushed
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper

In a medium bowl, whisk together dressing ingredients. Remove and reserve 1/2 cup; cover and refrigerate. Trim fat from beef. Cut lengthwise in half and then crosswise into 1/8-inch thick strips. Add beef to remaining dressing; toss to coat. Cover and marinate in the refrigerator for 30 minutes. Remove beef from marinade; discard marinade.

Heat a large non-stick skillet over medium high heat until hot. Add beef, 1/2 at a time and stir fry 1-2 minutes or until no longer pink. Do not overcook. Remove from skillet with a slotted spoon. In a large bowl, combine lettuce and reserved dressing; toss to coat. Arrange beef over lettuce; sprinkle with cheese, cherries and pine nuts. Serve immediately. Serves 4.

Recipe compliments of Cynthia Hodges, 1995 Michigan Beef Cook-Off finalist, and the Michigan Beef Industry.

LOOKING AHEAD

What to watch for in Taste next week:

- Cranbrook Schools' Le Gala De Cuisine

THE WALT DISNEY COMPANY

Fruit fly: In an ingenious attempt to escape an attacking shark, the inhabitants of a giant peach (a boy named James and his six bug companions) enlist the support of a flock of seagulls to lift them into the air in Walt Disney Pictures' "James and the Giant Peach."

'James and the Giant Peach' Inspires juicy recipes

STORY BY KEELY WYGONIK • STAFF WRITER

PEACHY TIPS:

- Choose intensely fragrant fruit that gives slightly to palm pressure. Avoid those that are hard, or have soft spots (bruises), or show signs of greening.
- Store ripe peaches in a plastic bag in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.
- Ripen under ripe peaches at room temperature by placing in a paper bag with an apple; pierce bag in several places with the tip of a knife.
- Peach yields: 1 pound equals 4 medium; 2 1/2 cups sliced; 2 1/2 cups chopped.
- Always peel peaches that will be cooked or the skin will become tough and ruin the texture of the pie, preserves or whatever.
- To peel a peach, dip it in boiling water for 20 to 30 seconds; remove with a slotted spoon and immediately plunge into a bowl of ice water. Use a paring knife to pull off the skin. If the skin doesn't come off readily, repeat the process, or simply use the knife to peel the skin that resists.

The peaches are in early this year! Over 25 readers shared some of their favorite "peachy" recipes to win a "Peck O'Peach Paraphernalia," prize package from Disney Pictures' new family film, "James and the Giant Peach."

Walt Disney Pictures' juicy big-screen version of Roald Dahl's classic fantasy, "James and the Giant Peach," follows the exciting journey of a lonely young boy who finds some unusual new friends and unexpected adventures when he climbs inside a giant peach and sets sail for New York City.

Since the initial publication of "James and the Giant Peach" in 1961, this best-selling tale has captured the fancy of several generations of readers.

James, a nine-year-old English orphan is sent to live with his horribly wicked and greedy Aunts Spiker and Sponge. Unwanted by them and forced to perform their menial chores, the boy dreams about going to New York City — a place, his father once told him, where dreams come true. When James meets a mysterious old man who presents him with a bag of magical glowing green things (crocodile tongues) and tells him that marvelous things will happen, the boys sees a glimmer of hope.

Pressed for details about how the magic works, the old man tells him that the answers are within his own heart. Racing home, the boy accidentally spills the contents of the bag at the base of a barren old peach tree next to his home. As Spiker and Sponge look on in astonishment, a peach instantly appears on the branch and grows and grows until it reaches 20 feet in diameter.

Quick to take advantage of their "cash crop," the Aunts charge admission for a gander at the "giant peach," but forbid James to go near it. Hungry and curious, he sneaks out that evening and takes a bite of peach just as the last remaining "green thing" wriggles its way out onto the mouth-watering morsel. When a glowing tunnel appears inside the peach, James enters it, and his adventure begins.

Director Henry Selick, who previously helmed "The Nightmare Before Christmas," re-teams with producers Denise Di Novi and Tim Burton as well as many of the same animators and film-making talents who helped create that landmark 1993 animated film.

Michigan peaches won't be in season until July, but other varieties are available in grocery stores and produce markets. "Although my daughters are now grown, we have such wonderful memories of the story of 'James and the Giant Peach,'" wrote Rackline Hoff of Birmingham. "We never forget our family vacation when I read the book aloud while my husband was driving. Not only did we thoroughly enjoy the story, but the mouth-watering description left us salivating for peaches. In fact, midway through the book, we stopped at a roadside stand to buy some fresh peaches — and they were the juiciest, most delicious peaches we ever tasted!"

Here's a Hoff family favorite:

PEACH BLUEBERRY CRISP

- 2 cups fresh peaches, peeled and sliced
- 1 pint fresh blueberries, washed
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup unsifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
- Topping:
 - 1/2 cup flour
 - 1/2 cup uncooked old-fashioned oatmeal
 - 1/2 cup butter, melted
 - 1/2 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed

Combine fruit and lemon juice. Add remaining ingredients. Put in greased 8 by 8 by 2-inch baking dish. To make topping: combine flour, oats and brown sugar. Stir in 1/2 cup butter to make a crumbly mixture.

Sprinkle topping on top of fruit mixture. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 35 minutes. Top with whipped cream, if desired, serve.

Bistro Beef Steak 'Lean 'N Easy'

In our quest for a healthy diet, we're eating more low-fat and non-fat foods than ever before. We also think we should eliminate certain foods, like red meat, to have a healthy diet.

"Consumers can learn to 'lighten up' when it comes to eating beef by choosing leaner cuts, trimming any visible fat and using low-fat cooking methods," said Mary Young, registered dietitian, and assistant director of education for the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Today's beef has 27 percent less trimable fat than just 10 years ago, and because of initiatives by retailers and processors, more than 40 percent of all beef cuts have no external fat at all. If you want the leanest cuts of all, look for the words "round" or "loin" in the name when shopping for beef. The leanest cuts are: beef eye round, top round, round tip, top sirloin, top loin and tenderloin.

Calories and fat can be significantly reduced by trimming all external fat from beef and other meats, and removing skin from poultry before eating. Trimming external fat from lean beef reduces the total fat content by an average of over 50 percent. Trimming visible fat before cooking reduces fat even more. Surprisingly, trimming has a bigger impact on reducing fat than the grade of beef.

When selecting beef, grade is a consideration. The grade of beef, either USDA "Choice" or "Select" appears on the packaging label. Both "Choice" and "Select" cuts can be lean, but "Select" has the least amount of internal fat, called marbling (white flecks in the meat). Because of the lower fat content, "Select" cuts will cook faster, so proper cooking is important to ensure a juicy, tender meal.

Bistro Beef Steak, a "Light 'N Lean" recipe from the National Live Stock and Meat Board, is ready to serve in 30 minutes.

Dave Simplowski of Westland called with a question about powdered sugar. He wants to know what's the difference between XXXX, 10X, bar sugar and the like.

Well, Dave, according to the folks at "Cook's" magazine, there's little difference between XXXX and 10X powdered sugar. The higher the number, the more the sugar has been ground. A finer grind makes for a smoother frosting. Bar sugar, also called superfine sugar, is finely ground granulated sugar that dissolves easier, especially in cold cocktails, and can be purchased at most upscale grocery stores in the sugar or liquor department.

Joan Morganroth of Avon Township is looking for a guiltless appetizer that she can make for an upcoming shower. Joan, you'll love this recipe from "The 99% Fat Free Book of Appetizers and Desserts" by Barry

CURRIED CHICKEN IN ENDIVE BOATS

- 8 ounces skinless, boneless chicken breast, trimmed
- 1/2 cup plain non fat yogurt
- 1 1/2 cups peeled and diced Granny Smith apples
- 1/2 cup chopped fresh pineapple
- 1/2 cup finely diced celery
- 2 teaspoons curry powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon fresh ground black pepper
- 12 leaves Belgian endive

Steam the chicken over boiling water for about 20 minutes, until fork tender. Allow to cool for a few minutes, cut into chunks and set aside. Place the yogurt into a mixing bowl. Add the apple, pineapple, celery, curry, salt and pepper.

Stir in the chicken and mix well. Cover and chill. Top each endive leaf with 1/2 cup of the chilled chicken salad and serve immediately. makes 12 servings. Each serving has 0.43 grams of fat and about 42 calories each.

Marsha Willon of Redford has made up her mind to lose 20 pounds before the Fourth of July. She called for a great tasting fish dish because she knows the importance of eating fish. Well, Marsha, I sampled this recipe as a guest of the Catfish Institute and couldn't believe how great it tastes. Talk about a wonderful lunch salad or an evening antipasti — this can't be beat!

CATFISH ANTIPASTI

- 2 cups water
- 8 ounces farm raised catfish filets
- 1 (9 ounce) package frozen artichoke hearts, thawed and halved

- 1 small zucchini, sliced
- 1/2 cup wine vinegar
- 1/2 cup olive or canola oil
- 3 green onions, finely chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon dried basil, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon fresh ground pepper

In a large skillet, bring the water to a boil. Add catfish. Return to a boil. Reduce heat to a simmer. Cover and simmer for 6 minutes. Remove fish from water. Cool slightly. Cut into bite-size pieces. In a medium bowl, combine catfish, artichoke hearts and zucchini. Set aside. In a small bowl, whisk together vinegar, oil, green onions, garlic, sugar, basil and pepper. Pour over fish and vegetable mixture and toss to coat. Cover and refrigerate 6 hours or overnight, tossing to redistribute coating occasionally. Drain mixture and arrange on lettuce lined serving plates. Makes 4 servings. Each serving about 175 calories.

Joe DeVansler of Plymouth called with a question about flour. He wanted to make bread, but only had a box of cake flour. Can it be used? Well Joe, the folks at White-Lily Flour Mills say that you can substitute cake flour anytime.

When a recipe calls for 1 cup of all purpose flour, use 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons cake flour. Likewise, when a recipe calls for cake flour, use 1 cup less 2 tablespoons all purpose flour. Of course, always use the "dip and sweep" method for measuring flour.

FETTUCINI AND PEACHES

- 8 ounces fettucini, white or green
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vegetable oil
- 1/2 cup whipping cream
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 cup grated Romano cheese
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 cup sliced firm fresh peaches
- 1/2 cup julienne ham or sliced prosciutto ham
- Nutmeg for garnish

Boil fettucini in salted water and vegetable oil for approximately 12 minutes or until tender. Drain well. In a saucepan, lightly beat cream, egg yolk and cheese. Heat the mixture until hot. Combine fettucini, parsley, peaches, ham and hot cheese mixture and toss lightly. Garnish and serve immediately.

EASY PEACH COBBLER

- 1/2 cup butter
- 4 cups sliced peaches
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon plus 1/2 cup baking mix (Bisquick)
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons milk

In a 1-quart shallow casserole combine peaches, sugar, 1 tablespoon baking mix and cinnamon.

In medium bowl mix together 1/2 cup baking mix and brown sugar. Cut in butter until the size of small peas. Stir in milk until moistened. Drop by spoonfuls onto peach mixture.

Bake at 400 degrees F. for 30 minutes or until toothpick inserted in crust comes out clean. Let set for 5 minutes before serving.

PEACH SLUSH

- 1 large can peaches (with syrup)
- 1 cup Margarita mix
- 1/2 cup sugar (optional)
- 2 ounces Vodka (to taste)
- 4 ounces Peach Schnapps (to taste)

Lemon/lime carbonated drink

Puree peaches in blender. Add other ingredients and blend. Freeze until slushy. Pour lemon/lime carbonated drink over slush in glass to serve.

Recipe from Deanna Werner, Plymouth

SWEET AND SOUR PEACH CHUTNEY

- 1 pound fresh peaches, peeled and chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, peeled and finely chopped
- 1 piece ginger (approximately

1" cube) peeled and finely chopped

- 1/2 cup red wine vinegar
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon Cayenne pepper
- 1/2 cup golden raisins

In the jar of an electric blender, blend the peaches, garlic, and ginger until smooth.

Transfer this mixture to a heavy stainless steel or porcelain-lined pot. Add the red wine vinegar, sugar, salt, and Cayenne.

Bring to a boil, and then turn the heat down to medium-low. Simmer for 20 minutes, stirring now and then to avoid letting the chutney stick to the bottom of the pot. Add the raisins, and continue to cook until the chutney looks thick and glazed.

Cool the chutney, transfer to a lidded glass jar, and store in the refrigerator.

Tea time is back throughout many people first try to take a break from the schedules. With approaching the end of the year, tea time with Mom.

Tea is not a source of well-being but it does contain substances with potential cancer-fighting properties.

Green tea, the lightest of the Far East, is a research attention, summed in this context some cancer-fighting.

Beyond tea and time would be completely delectable treats. Cakes using your favorite grain muffin or quince mini-muffin or mini-jam or a sprinkling make perfect frosting.

Sponge cake or fruit delicious topped with fruit. Try cutting with a cutter, heating until golden, and sugar.

BISTRO BEEF STEAK

- 1 pound boneless beef top sirloin steak, cut 3/4-inch thick
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh Italian parsley
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 large red onion
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1/2 cup dry red wine
- 1 1/2 pounds new potatoes, steamed
- 2 cups steamed vegetable medley (green beans and sliced yellow bell pepper)

Trim fat from beef steak. Cut steak lengthwise in half and then crosswise into 1/2-inch thick strips. In medium bowl, combine beef, parsley, garlic and pepper; toss to coat. Set aside.

Cut onion into 1/4-inch thick slices; separate into rings. In large nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium-high heat until hot.

Add onion; cook and stir 3 to 5 minutes or until crisp-tender. Remove to serving platter; keep warm.

In same skillet, add beef and stir-fry 2 minutes or until outside surface is no longer pink. Place beef on top of onion.

Add wine to skillet; cook and stir until brown bits attached to skillet are dissolved and liquid thickens slightly. Pour sauce over beef and onions. Serve with potatoes and vegetables. Makes 4 servings.

Scones and tea are a cozy pair

Tea time is making a comeback throughout this country as many people find it a wonderful way to take a break from hectic schedules. With Mother's Day approaching, this could be a special way to spend some quality time with Mom.

Tea is not an exceptional source of well-known nutrients, but it does contain polyphenols — substances under close study for potential cancer-fighting properties. Green tea, the light, flavorful tea from the Far East, is attracting the most research attention, but the black tea consumed in this country also may have some cancer-fighting advantages.

Beyond tea and conversation, no tea time would be complete without a tray of delectable treats. Consider some of these healthy choices.

Toast cornmeal muffins and serve them with apple butter, or create tea cakes using your favorite low-fat, whole-grain muffin or quick-bread recipe in mini-muffin or mini-loaf pans. All fruit jam or a sprinkling of powdered sugar make perfect frosting.

Sponge cake or fat-free pound cake are delicious topped with berries or sliced fruit. Try cutting cake slices with a cookie cutter, heating the shapes in the oven until golden, and dusting with powdered sugar.

If tea sandwiches strike your fancy, be sure to use fat-free cream cheese on your watercress, cucumber or tomato sandwiches, or serve tuna, salmon or chicken salad made with low-fat mayonnaise. Trim the crusts from whole wheat bread, spread with filling and cut in four triangles.

Fresh strawberries are fabulous with a dip made by blending eight ounces of vanilla nonfat yogurt with a little honey and a few toasted almonds.

Scones are a tea time tradition, so savor low-fat Buttermilk Oatmeal Raisin Scones spread with your favorite jam.

BUTTERMILK OATMEAL RAISIN SCONES

- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1 1/2 cups whole wheat flour
- 1 1/2 cups rolled oats
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons soft margarine
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 1/2 cups buttermilk

Preheat the oven to 425 degrees F. Set aside 1 1/2 teaspoons of sugar for the topping. In a bowl, combine the whole wheat flour, rolled oats, remaining sugar, baking powder, soda and salt. Blend in the margarine until the mixture is crumbly. Stir in the raisins, then the buttermilk.

Scones: Buttermilk Oatmeal Raisin Scones pair perfectly with freshly brewed tea.

On a lightly floured surface, knead the dough about 10 times. Divide it into 3 pieces. Pat each piece into a round about 3/4-inch thick. Transfer to a baking sheet then cut with a knife to divide each round into four quarters.

Sprinkle with reserved sugar. Bake for 15 to 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve hot.

Each scone has 4 grams of fat and 184 calories.

imagine building your own kind of cable company?

So stop dreaming and start building.

At Ameritech new media, if you have the ideas—you have the power. The power to help create a whole new world of cable communications. To take your skills and expertise to unprecedented heights. And to build a career second to none. Join Ameritech new media. Thrive in our remarkable team-based environment. And discover just how far your ideas can take you in these Detroit area opportunities.

Installation & Maintenance Manager
 We are currently looking for experienced Cable TV performance-oriented Managers to supervise a crew of technicians who will be responsible for installation of cable-TV service in our customers' homes and/or maintenance (includes on-demand and preventative) of the cable system from the node to the customer's set. Extensive technical knowledge of cable system maintenance is preferred, but more importantly, you should be a manager who expects, and who can convey the importance of, extraordinary customer service.

Cable Placement/Construction Manager
 Bureau & Field
 In this position, you will supervise fiber and coaxial cable placement crews to ensure construction is high-quality and cost effective. This will involve supervising all activities related to construction of cable networks including: safety, tracking/monitoring daily productivity, and employee coaching/counseling. Candidate must have 3-5 years experience with buried (plowing and directional boring) aerial cable placement. Selected individuals must be self-motivated and possess excellent organizational skills. These ground floor opportunities are a perfect entry into our new and exciting business ventures. We offer an excellent salary and benefits package. For consideration, please send resume to: Box 2533, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft Rd., Livonia, MI 48150.

Unbeaten and untied

The Canton Predators, a boys under-12 soccer team at the Wide World Sports Center in Ann Arbor, completed its indoor season by winning its A Division championship. The Predators posted an 8-0-0 record in doing so.

Team members include Benjamin Brockschmidt, Brady Burns, Michael Cizewski, Kevin "KC" Coxford, Eric Durance, Keith Fukuda, Brian Gawronski, Steven Johnston, Scott Koehler, Jared Lamborn, Nick Oswalt, Tavio Palazzolo, Kevin Peurassari, Jason Poniatowski, Mark Reid, Jeremy Schwartz, Carl Space and Ryan Stanko.

The team is coached by Kurt Johnston and Vic Dillon.

Titan effort

Ed Gundry continues to provide the University of Detroit Mercy baseball team with clutch hits.

The Titans were 4-2 last week, and Gundry - a junior first baseman from Canton (Plymouth Salem HS) - was a key contributor in two of the victories.

In a 7-6 come-from-behind win over Michigan State April 10, Gundry came to the plate in the bottom of the ninth with the bases loaded and one out, the Titans trailing 6-5. His infield single tied it at 6-all; Mike Pesci (Farmington Hills Harrison) followed with another infield hit that provided U-DM with the game-winner.

On April 14 against Cleveland State, Gundry singled in a run in the first inning to start the Titans off in what ended up a 5-1 triumph. Pesci and junior designated hitter Dean Rovinelli (Canton/Plymouth Canton HS) also had run-producing hits, Rovinelli's a double.

In the second game April 14, Dave Susalla (Redford/Redford Catholic Central), a sophomore left-hander, surrendered just two earned runs in a 6-3 U-DM triumph.

Other sports, other U-DM standouts: Junior Mary Jo Kelly (Livonia Ladywood) combined on the mound with freshman Erin Bjerke in the Titans' 6-0 softball shutout of Dayton.

Senior Jeff Robertson (Redford St. Agatha) was a winner in the 400-meter hurdles (53.19) and Eric McKeon (Redford Catholic Central) was first in the 400-meters (48.70) for U-DM at the Miami (Ohio) Invitational April 13-14.

Junior Tanya Berner (Livonia Franklin) and freshman Jennifer Wioncek (Livonia Ladywood) each won their singles matches and combined for a win in their doubles as the Lady Titans beat Wisconsin-Milwaukee for the first time ever, 5-4.

Fishing Derby

The ninth-annual Kids Fishing Derby is slated for 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, May 11 at Heritage Park ponds.

The ponds will be stocked with rainbow trout, with awards presented for largest fish caught. First prize is a $100 savings bond.

The derby is open to Canton-area boys and girls 15 years old and younger. Advanced registration, in person or by phone, is required. Registration cost is $1.

Registration ends May 9. Again, this competition is for Canton residents only. For more information, call 397-5110.

Holowicki cage camps

Registration is on for Bernie Holowicki's All-Star basketball camps (four different sessions) this summer.

Boys camps will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, June 17-21 and 24-28 (cost $99 each) at Madonna University.

The girls camp will be 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Saturday, July 1-6 (cost $99) followed by the coed shooting camp, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, July 8-12, both at St. Robert Bellarmine School in Redford.

The camp includes contests, prizes, T-Shirts, awards, guest speakers and tournaments.

For more information, call Bill Derderdian at (313) 937-0966 or Holowicki at (313) 261-3346.

SC golf outing

The Schoolcraft College Foundation's 13th annual golf tournament, to support student scholarships, will be Monday, June 10 at Washtenaw Country Club.

Golfers can opt for a morning package, an afternoon package, hole sponsorship or a President's Club level participation, each including a pro clinic.

Auction items include autographed jerseys from Detroit Red Wings Steve Yzerman, Paul Coffey and Sergei Fedorov, along with golf package weekends for two at Grand Traverse Resort and Shanty Creek.

Also, a set of custom-made clubs and culinary arts dinner prepared by SC graduating senior Gary Ellis, Gov. John Engler's summer cook at the Governor's Mansion on Mackinac Island, will also be auctioned.

For more information, call the SC Office of Marketing and Development at (313) 462-4417.

Anyone interested in submitting items to Sports Scene may send them to sports editor C.J. Risak, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, MI, 48150, or may FAX them to (313) 591-7279.

Salem stops Stevenson quickly

Jenny Trott had to get to the prom.

But she also had to pitch for Plymouth Salem's softball team Friday afternoon.

Solution: don't give up many hits and have your teammates get a mercy for you.

Trott pitched a one-hitter and Salem scored a 12-2 victory over Livonia Stevenson in a game shortened to five innings by the mercy rule.

The lone kink for Trott was walking seven batters, which led to both of Stevenson's runs in the fourth. But her teammates came back with a run in the bottom of the fourth to end the game.

Trott gave up her lone hit to senior Laura Krol with two out in the third. She averaged a strikeout an inning.

"We're improving. We're playing better," Salem coach Bonnie Southerland said after her team improved to 3-1.

Catcher Stefanie Volpe went 2-for-2, stroking a single and a double, and drove in fourth runs as Salem went 4-3-4 over the first three frames.

Carah Best had a triple and drove in two runs while sophomore Trott helped herself get home in time to get ready for the Junior Prom by getting a single and driving in two runs.

Kristen Los had a double to drive in a run. Stevenson made five errors in the game to just one by Salem, which made the most of seven hits.

•CHURCHILL 7, CANTON 4: Tina Naif's two-run single gave the Chargers the lead for good Friday over visiting Canton in a five-run fifth. Winning pitcher Alicia December went 3-for-4 with a triple and scattered four hits as Churchill improved to 5-2 overall, 2-0 in the Western Lakes Athletic Association.

Megan McGinty went 2-for-4, scored twice and drove in a run. December walked two and struck out three.

For Canton, freshman Gretchen Hudson took the loss, allowing eight hits and a walk in six innings, striking out two. Jenny Sikora had two hits for the Chiefs, one a triple, and Jillian Gross knocked in two of their runs with a triple in the fourth.

Back safety: Canton's Dave Walker dived back to first before Churchill's Eric Lightle could tag him during Friday's game. The Chiefs' victory gave them some much-needed momentum - it was their third win in a row.

Bats come alive in Canton win

BY C.J. RISAK
SPORTS EDITOR

After starting the season with three straight losses, Plymouth Canton's baseball team is getting on track. The Chiefs collected their third-straight win Friday against WLAA rival Churchill.

It wasn't picture perfect, but the final results were satisfying for Plymouth Canton's baseball team.

The Chiefs improved to 3-3 overall and, in doing so, won their Western Lakes Activities Association Western Division opener by holding off a stubborn Livonia Churchill squad, 4-3 Friday at Canton.

"It was ugly but we won," said Canton coach Scott Dickey. "The positive thing was we were hitting the ball hard. It was right at people a lot of the time, but we were swinging the bats."

"But," he added, "in the field we did let the other team back in the game. Just like we did against Brother Rice. And I'm not happy about that."

The Chiefs made four errors in the field, one that led to one Charger run. That error and a passed ball put a runner in scoring position; a double scored him. After a ground out and a walk, Churchill had runners at the corners with two out. A grounder to shortstop Neil Wildfong, a junior filling in for starter Kurt Richards, who left the game after breaking his nose on a foul tip in the first, was initially bobbled. But Wildfong made the play to end the game.

"I was real happy with the way (Wildfong) played," said Dickey. "He made all the plays."

A couple of those came at the plate. Wildfong stepped up to the plate after Richards, Canton's lead-off batter, was hurt in the bottom of the first. He singled, starting a rally for the Chiefs. Bryan Dixon followed with a single and John Wright then drove in Wildfong with a base hit, tying the game at 1-1.

The Chiefs took the lead for good when pitcher Anthony Pastor singled in the second, went to second on Mike Eisner's sacrifice, got to third on Jason Pennebaker's ground out, and scored on a wild pitch.

Canton made it 3-1 when Dixon started the third with a double.

Rocks, Chiefs collect dual-meet victories

It was another win for Plymouth Salem's girls track team Thursday, but it wasn't exactly the kind coaches relish.

Certainly the Rocks Mark Gregor wasn't real pleased after his team's 69-59 win at Farmington. "It was evident today that we're not in very good condition," Gregor said after his team raised its overall dual-meet record to 2-0. It gave the Rocks a 1-0 mark in the Western Lakes Activities Association's Lakes Division.

"We're going to have to get after it if we're going to be competitive," Gregor continued. "It's true, we haven't been able to do a lot (because of the weather), but this schedule will help change that."

"We have the (state) regionals four weeks from yesterday. We don't have a lot of time when you think of it in terms of weeks."

After splitting the team for the Lady Chiefs Relays and the West Bloomfield Relays last Saturday, Salem was scheduled to compete in the April Shower Relays at Ypsilanti, then travel to North Farmington for a dual meet Thursday.

The Rocks were lacking mostly in the field events against Farmington; they failed to win any except the high jump, in which Nicole Van Hees finished first (5-feet, 2-inches).

GIRLS TRACK

What made the difference for Salem was its overall depth - the Rocks took seven of 12 seconds and seven of 12 thirds - and its performances in the relays.

Salem was a winner in three of the four relays, winning the 400-meter with Van Hees, Candice Lynett, Joan Marquez and Angie Sillmon (55.1); the 800, with Kim Sheldon, Sarah Vida, Sillmon and Katie Bonner (1:56.6); and the 1,600, with Kristie Giddings, Vida, Sheldon and Bonner (4:19.6).

Van Hees was Salem's only individual double-winner, capturing the 100 hurdles (18.05) as well as the high jump. Other individual winners for the Rocks were Sheldon in the 300 hurdles (51.6), Bonner in the 200 (28.8) and Giddings in the 800 (2:30.1).

Plymouth Canton

It was a near-perfect spring day Thursday - although Livonia Franklin's girls track team may not have thought so.

Plymouth Canton, the defending WLAA champion, brushed the Patriots aside Thursday while collecting a 111-17 victory.

Nkechi Okwumabua won three individual events and Mary Anderson carded two for the Chiefs, now 2-0 overall and 1-0 in the WLAA's Western Division.

Okwumabua's firsts came in the long jump (15-feet, 9.5-inches), the 100-meters (13.6) and the 200 (28.5). Anderson was best in the 100 (17.3) and 300 (49.9) hurdles.

Other individual winners for Canton were Emily Moran in the discus (96-0), Marisa Kovach in the high jump (5-2), Becky Uryga in the 400 (1:03.3), Jessa Scott in the 800 (2:43.8), Jamie Vergari in the 1,600 (6:00.4) and Becky Wolf from in the 3,200 (12:51.00).

Amy Sonnanstine, Heard, Natalie Wood and Tiffany Williams won the 800 relay (1:55.9); Aina Voyden, Williams, Kim Robertson and Okwumabua were first in the 400 relay (53.1); Williams, Wood, Nancy Hoffman and Uryga won the 1,600 (4:22.1); and Scott, Brooke Larson, Debbie Kaczmarek and Melissa Lomibco took the 3,200 (11:25.4).

Chiefs top Franklin; Salem wins

There was a good deal of improvement worth noting for Plymouth Canton's boys track team from last Thursday's meet against Lavonia-Franklin.

The most notable was the final score: an 83-54 victory at Franklin. The win evened the Chiefs' dual-meet record at 1-1 and made them 1-0 in the Western Lakes Activities Association's Western Division.

"The sprints picked us up today," said Canton coach Bob Richardson. "And our hurdlers came through."

So, too, did the Chiefs improve in the field events - although it wasn't real noticeable. They were outscored 32-13.

Where Canton did most of its damage was in the distance events - "We're traditionally strong that way" - and in the relays, which the Chiefs swept.

Robert Lynn, Kwaku Dankwa, Dave Koshizawa and Steve Putala combined to capture the 400-meter relay (48.1). In the 800 relay, it was Ben Nelson, Koshizawa, Jason Falardeau and Jim Chefan that won (1:39.3). Evan Crocket, Falardeau, Nelson and Jon Page combined for a first in the 1,600 (3:49.0), and Crocket, Jason Rutter, Ian Bedford and Craig Brunskole took the 3,200 (9:09.0).

BOYS TRACK

The Page brothers accounted for two of Canton's individual wins - B.J. in the 110 hurdles (16.1) and Jon in the 400 (55.3). Crocket was first in the 800 (2:12.6). Shaun Moore got a win in the 1,600 (5:00.8) and Ryan Portrey was best in the 3,200 (11:02.1).

However, the only Canton victory in the field events came from Chefan in the high jump (5-foot, 8-inches).

"We're not there yet," admitted Richardson. "We've got a ways to go. But it was a nice day for us."

Plymouth Salem

Several of Plymouth Salem's premier distance runners were out of action Thursday against Farmington, but it hardly mattered. The Rocks overwhelmed the visiting Falcons, 99-38, improving their dual-meet record to 2-0 overall and to 1-0 in the WLAA's Lakes Division. Farmington is 0-2 overall, 0-1 in the Lakes.

Farmington did almost all of its damage in the field events, winning four of five. The only Salem victory in the field came from Mike Rodriguez in the long jump (19-feet).

However, the track events were all Salem. In the eight individual events, the Rocks had eight different winners: Rob Hawley in the 110-meter hurdles (15.3), Dan Johnson in the 300 hurdles (41.9), Chris Mason in the 100 (11.2), Lawrence Nunn in the 200 (25.0), Josh Fair in the 400 (55.1), Ian Searcy in the 800 (2:12.1), Charlie Schmidt in the 1,600 (5:02.0) and Japbir Gill in the 3,200 (10:52.0).

Salem also swept the four relays: Nunn, Kevin Conte, Mason and Johnson in the 400 (46.9); Conte, Nunn, Mason and Scott Kingslien in the 800 (1:38.9); Hawley, Johnson, Theron Stinar and Conte in the 1,600 (3:52.4); and Jason Ennis, Adam Thurtell, Bryan Kelm and Searcy in the 3,200 (9:13.9).

"We gave a lot of different guys chances to run today," said Salem coach Geoff Baker. "This was a second conditioning stint for a lot of guys, who were gone over spring break."

Baker gave several Rocks the day off to rest them for last Saturday's meets. The distance runners went to the Mansfield (Ohio) Relays, with the rest of the team going to the Elks Relays in Dearborn.

Wright's single scored him.

Wildfong drove in what later proved to be the game-winner in the fourth. Pennebaker reached base on a walk and made it to third on a passed ball and a wild pitch. Wildfong's squeeze bunt brought him in.

Dixon had three hits for Canton and Wright got two, with two runs batted in. Wildfong had a hit, a run scored and an RBI.

Pastor collected his first mound win of the season, evening his record at 1-1 with a strong performance. Pastor went the distance, giving up one earned run on four hits and one walk while striking out 10.

"He did very well," said Dickey of Pastor. "Our pitching's done very well all year."

Leon Kashawic was the loser for Churchill. In six innings, he surrendered eight hits and three walks, striking out three.

A Mike Cotter single followed by a Jason Fleissner double delivered a run for Churchill in the first. Two Canton errors led to a second Charger run in the fifth.

Salem 14, Stevenson 13: Plymouth Salem blew a 14-2 lead before escaping with the victory Friday.

The visiting Rocks (4-3) took control early thanks to a two-run homer by Ryan Andrzejewski in the first inning. In the fifth, Justin Hulett slammed a solo homer to give Salem a 14-2 lead. Both homers were the first career four-baggers for the two Rocks.

The Spartans (1-3) then scored 11 straight runs but fell one shy. The Stevenson comeback was aided by eight Salem errors.

"Our prom is tonight and perhaps that was on their minds," Salem coach Dale Rumberger said. "We were playing outstanding in the first four innings, but then we made three errors in a row on routine grounders in the fifth. It was frustrating."

"Our team is young and a win is a win, but I'm certainly not happy with the way we're playing defense now. On the bright side, we swang the bat well from the beginning."

Junior catcher Ryan Rumberger went 4-for-5 with two RBI for Salem. Andrzejewski, Hulett, Kevin Niemec and Dave Barker added two hits apiece. Hulett drove in a total of three runs and Niemec scored twice and stole two bases.

Andrzejewski collected the win after lasting the first five innings. None of the six runs he allowed were earned. Tom DeMetsenare allowed eight runs in the final two innings to earn the save, but only one run was earned.

Mike Allison suffered the defeat for Stevenson. Todd Smith and Mark Dietrich led the Spartans with three hits each.

Baptist Park 12, PCA 11: Plymouth Christian Academy let a win slip away Friday as the host Eagles lost their fifth straight.

Taylor Baptist Park trailed 7-5 before taking a 10-7 lead with a five-run sixth inning. The Eagles countered with four runs to take the lead back and seemed to have the win put away as the Wildcats had a runner on third with two outs.

But a grounder to shortstop was thrown away allowing the tying run to score and the winning run to eventually score. PCA threatened with a runner on second and one out in the bottom of the seventh, but he was thrown out trying to steal third.

"This was disappointing," PCA coach Dave Robillard said. "It was a learning experience for us after being clobbered four times. But we made some mental mistakes at the end and let this one slip away."

Chris Derenzo was 4-for-4 for PCA, with two runs and two-run single in the second inning. John Warrick was 3-for-5 with three RBI, including a two-run single in the fourth. John Pugno was also 3-for-5 with two runs.

Jim Speier tossed the first five innings for PCA, striking out six and walking seven.

PCA (2-5) outthit the Wildcats 17-10.

Crusader bats clobber Cornerstone

Madonna University bats were on fire Thursday as the Crusaders collected 30 hits in a doubleheader sweep of visiting Cornerstone College.

The Crusaders (19-16) pounded out 14 hits in the opener to mercy Cornerstone in six innings 14-4. Madonna swept the twin bill with a 16-hit attack in a five-inning mercy, 19-2.

In the nightcap, the Crusaders scored 11 runs in the first inning. Aaron Shrewsbury led the onslaught, going 2-for-3 including a double, home run and three RBI.

Kurt Wilczynski was 2-for-3 with four runs scored and Pete Quinn was 2-for-3 with a homer and four RBI. Matt Hansen and Brandon Jaskolski also added a pair of hits each.

The offense was more than enough for the Madonna hurlers, as four pitchers combined on a two-hitter. Tim Holland (2-3), who threw one perfect inning was credited with the victory. Mark Serra, Eric Crawford and Bob Mason also took the hill.

Cornerstone (2-16) wasn't much competition in the first game, either, as the Crusaders led 8-2 after two innings.

Shortstop Dan Taylor was 3-for-3 with four RBI and first baseman Jeff Warholik was 2-for-2 with two runs and four RBI. Tim Kasubowski (two doubles), Quinn and Jaskolski chipped in with two hits apiece.

Jason Dubey, Jason Carter and Tom Suter each pitched two innings. Carter received the win in his first decision of the season.

Collins 2nd in tourney, but Rocks, Chiefs trail

There was good news and bad news for Plymouth Salem's golf team Friday at the Ann Arbor Invitational, an 18-team tournament co-hosted by Pioneer and Huron high schools at the University of Michigan golf course.

The good news was provided by Katie Collins, a junior whose 90 left her just one stroke shy of earning individual medalist honors. Shellie Morton of Bloomfield Cranbrook-Kingswood collected those with an 89.

However, the rest of the Salem team was not quite equal to the challenges presented by the tough U-M course. The Rocks finished well back in the standings with a team total of 457.

Katie Murinas was next best

for Salem with a 99. Chrystal Kopacz shot 132 and Jessica Hedges carded a 136.

None of the teams really mastered the course. East Lansing was the overall team winner with a 389; next best was Traverse City with a 399, followed by Saline and Pioneer.

Canton struggled as well. The Chiefs' four scorers were Sandra Pavlo, 124; Kim Stafford, 126; Lauren Campbell, 173; and Nancy Newcom, 180.

Canton plays at Northville's home course while Salem goes against Livonia Franklin at Hilltop today.

Still some good tournaments ahead

BY AL HARRISON
STAFF WRITER

There are plenty of good tournaments to keep our local bowlers happy, and one of the most prestigious is the annual John Gavie Tournament every August at Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park.

The 60th annual event will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 19. Entry forms are now available at most area bowling centers.

Now let us reflect on this tournament for a moment. It is one of the oldest of all bowling events, and the kickoff for the new season.

It is always a chance for old friends to meet and pay tribute to Gavie, who has done so much to promote our sport over the years.

As in past years, Joe Norris, the hall of famer and captain of the great Detroit teams, will be here.

Norris, 87, is the all-time record holder in the ABC tournament with 116,067 pins. He'll come in from his home in San Diego to bowl.

Every entrant will receive a souvenir mug and a zippered bag for bowling or golf accessories in addition to shooting for cash prizes. The entry fee is only $75 per team in each of the three divisions: Regular men's, women's and senior men over 55.

It's expected that this year, the teams will fill the house, all 94 lanes. There will also be three limited-edition portraits of Joe Norris given out as door prizes.

I will be there, how about you? Check it out with your teammates and get your entry forms in early to assure placement.

The deadline for entries is July 1. For more details or entry forms, call (313) 928-4688.

Shame on you, Michigan Liquor Control Commission. What a waste of resources when you have nothing better to do than mess with the bowlers.

The "gestapo-style" raids on local bowling centers is damaging to our great sport. They say that any jackpots that contain an element of chance are illegal in establishments that serve liquor.

What is the lottery, which is sold at many drug stores and party stores?

How about horse racing and the many gambling casinos that operate in this state?

Bowling is truly a part of our American culture, it has endured in this form for more than 100 years because it provides good honest fun for everyone.

Part of the fun is winning a few dollars, and not everyone is talented equally, so the mystery games and 0-50 drawings are an opportunity for those of lesser ability to have an even chance to win something special, too.

Bowlers, this is a serious threat to our sport. Write or contact your state representatives to change the laws and keep the LCC off our backs.

Canton clips Hawks

The early-season glide continues for Plymouth Canton's soccer team.

The Chiefs lost their first two games to the weather - against Livonia Stevenson and Troy Athens. That left them to open the season against Northville, a game they lost.

After that, it's hardly been difficult. Wednesday's match at Farmington Harrison provided further proof - a 5-0 victory for the Chiefs.

It was 3-0 by halftime and it

really never got better for the Hawks. Melissa Marzolf and Dawn Koontz each scored two goals for Canton, which improved to 3-1. Lisa Reissenwerber also got a goal, with Julie Majewski, Marzolf, and Emile Mejer earning assists.

Sarah Warnke was in goal for the Chiefs, collecting her third shutout in four matches.

Jaguar XJ6 lives up to its name

By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures

There are so many ways to say Jaguar.

There's Jag-war. Or Jag-wire. Or the Brit way: Jag-you-arr.

Whatever. All I know is that it lives up to its name.

The Jaguar XJ6 is fast, fast, fast and faster.

The good news is that it's not subject to the gas-guzzler tax. The XJ6 gets quite respectable mileage: 17 mpg in the city, 23 on the highway.

This was my first time ever in a Jaguar. What impressed me most is the pure, solid strength of the vehicle. You don't see extensive use of plastic or wood-grain composite material anywhere.

What you see is lots of metal, steel and chrome. When you shut the door, the sound is as solid as can be. It's gotta be as strong as a Mack truck.

Jaguar officials say Jaguar cars are built to the highest quality standards in the world and that Jaguar cars have achieved the highest peak values of strength, refinement, durability and reliability.

ROAD TEST
By
Anne Fracassa

That may be true. When you do see an occasional Jaguar on the road, many of them are old. Not just 10 or 15 years, mind you. You can see 20-year-old Jags still in service and looking quite nice.

Although Jaguar updates its lineup often with refinements and technological advances, there are still the classic lines and characteristics that set Jaguars apart from any other car line. When you see a Jaguar, you know it's a Jaguar.

From its classic lines and leaping Jaguar hood ornament to the unique headlamps, sculptured hood and traditional grille, the XJ6 carries on the Jaguar heritage proudly.

Inside you'll find smart controls, modern and comfortable seating (redesigned this year for improved support and comfort), top-grade leather and hand-crafted wood veneers used throughout the car. Instrumentation is classic in layout, yet modern in execution.

A throwback from years past is in the 1996 XJ6: The wood-trimmed steering wheel. It has leather handgrips and is outfitted with an airbag. Pockets on the front seats add to storage possibilities. Standard are a locking glovebox, cup holders and a center console storage compartment.

A neat feature is the multi-adjustable front seats with power lumbar supports. They have memory recall on the driver's side and include the seat adjustments, exterior mirrors and steering column adjustments. There are three settings, two of which can be activated by dual remote locking transmitters.

Press the entry or exit button and the mirrors, steering wheel and seat automatically adjust to your individual preferences.

Heating and air-conditioning controls are located in the center of the instrument panel, are easy to understand and easy to use. Buttons are large and marked well. No guessing when you want heat at your feet or cool air on your face. You can set a temperature control that suits you and it automatically retains that temperature.

I rarely gush about a stereo system in a car, but this needs a quick mention. Jaguar outfits its XJ6 with an 80-watt AM/FM cassette Harman Kardon sound system (an option, though) that has nine speakers and an 8-channel multi-function power amplifier. Close the windows tight and you'll feel like you're in a premium concert hall — even if you're listening to Bob Seger singing "Roll Me Away" as only Bob can sing it.

Nothing is more annoying than slipping into the rear seat and not being comfortable because the front seat encroaches on your space. Revenge is sweet. Rear-seat passengers can electrically adjust the position of the front passenger seat to increase their own legroom and comfort level.

Rear-seat passengers can also adjust their own heating and cooling from a walnut-veneered rear console.

The 4.0-liter all-aluminum in-line dual-overhead-cam V6 engine is quiet, efficient and provides enough — sometimes more — power than you need to get you there in a hurry. It responds when you want it to and provides passing power when you least expect it.

Handling is responsive on this Jaguar car. It's quite refined, and driving is almost effortless, even in tense situations. The suspension is what you would expect — top-of-the-line comfort ... truly a touring car.

The Jaguar XJ6 isn't cheap, but you wouldn't expect it to be. You'll get what you pay for. And that's quality.

1996 Jaguar XJ6
Vehicle Class:
Compact luxury sedan
Mileage:
17 mpg city/23 mpg highway
Engine:
4.0 liter in-line DOHC V6
Where Built:
England
Base Price:
$56,320

Things You
Auto
KNOW!

True or False?
Tire pressure 8 pounds low can cause up to a 5 percent drop in gas mileage.

True!
The reason:
Increased rolling resistance.

Buying a Used Car Can Be Risky.

Blackwell Ford can help minimize the risk you take when purchasing a used vehicle. Every used vehicle sold by Blackwell Ford undergoes extensive reconditioning and safety inspection before it is offered for sale. If the vehicle does not meet our high standards, it will never be displayed on our lot. In the unlikely event that something does go wrong with your vehicle during the first 30 days or 2,000 miles, whichever occurs first, we will stand behind it 100% and repair it free of charge. It's that simple. We offer new car peace of mind with your used vehicle purchase. Stop in today to see our large selection of quality used vehicles, all priced to sell. And please remember ...

"If You Don't Know Used Cars, Know Your Dealer."

75 Quality Used Vehicles Available for Immediate Delivery.
Ford Motor Red Carpet Leasing Available on Most Units.

We Perform the following inspections within 90 days Prior to registration of Used Vehicle Contract.

I. INITIAL INSPECTION ODOMETER READING is supported by the general condition of the vehicle. Checked for presence of lube sticker or maintenance log for support of mileage. OIL FILTER have been checked and changed prior to sale, as necessary.	II. UNDER HOOD ENGINE block, cylinder heads, intake and exhaust manifolds checked/corrected for cracks. COMPRESSION TEST - must be within manufacturer's specifications. If not make necessary repairs prior to sale. (Must be performed on vehicles with 60,000 or more miles on the odometer prior to sale.) Check for and correct oil leaks. AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION FLUID is at the prescribed level and free of contamination or discoloration. COOLANT is at the prescribed level and is not contaminated. PRESSURE TEST COOLING SYSTEM to check/correct leaks. Check/correct cooling fan operation. POWER STEERING pump reservoir and gear box are at the prescribed fluid level and system shows no evidence of leaks or noise. BREAK MASTER CYLINDER is at the prescribed fluid level and shows no evidence of leaks. BATTERY charge is at prescribed level, cables are corrosion-free and properly secured. CARBURETOR AIR CLEANER/FUEL INJECTOR are clean.	III. UNDER VEHICLE TRANSMISSION CASE is free of cracks and leaks. STANDARD TRANSMISSION FLUID is at the prescribed level (also transfer case on 4x4s) and no leaks. CV BOOTs are free from cracks or deterioration.	IV. ROAD TEST ENGINE is operating properly and shows no obvious signs of problems (i.e., excessive smoking, poor performance, etc.). ENGINE OIL PRESSURE AND OPERATING TEMPERATURES are within normal range levels. AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION is shifting smoothly and quietly. STANDARD TRANSMISSION is shifting properly and quietly (also transfer case on 4x4s). VIBRATION in the drive line, if any, has been corrected. ELECTRICAL switches have been inspected for proper operation. (Ammeter equipped vehicles should show a charge after starting engine and return to normal shortly after starting.) And all grids on the heated backlight (if equipped) are working properly. AIR CONDITIONING has been inspected for proper operation and free of iron leaks and noise. STEERING has been checked for proper operation. BRAKES & CALIPERS have been checked for proper operation and leaks. Replace pads and linings if worn. PARKING BRAKE has been checked for proper operation. UNUSUAL NOISES - Correct conditions causing unusual noises in the engine, transmission, drive shaft, universal joints, or rear axle. EMISSION SYSTEM - All parts are functional and meet required standards.

*Engine, transmission and drive shaft must be the same as OE specified for the vehicle and meet all applicable Federal Regulations to be eligible for EPA coverage.

Attach a copy of the interim repair order indicating repairs performed on the vehicle prior to the sale.
