Law, Vorva debate issues

Voters in Plymouth go to the polls on Tuesday, Aug. 6. At stake is the 20th state House seat now held by Gerald Law. He debated opponent Jerry Vorva last week.

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

The candidates came out jabbing Thursday in the Republican primary race for the state House.

Incumbent Gerald Law attacked challenger Jerry Vorva for co-sponsoring a bill to allow creation of a Willow Run Tradeport which he said would "ruin our community."

Law also chided Vorva for not passing legislation, saying Vorva proposed seven bills and passed one when Vorva served in the state House in 1992-94, while Law introduced 55 bills and passed 11 this term.

"I'm one of the most productive legislators, he's one of the least productive," Law said.

But Vorva swung back, saying the tradeport bill was part of broader legislation designed to give communities more local control. "Mr. Law is trying to frighten you," he said.

"Ethics are an important part of this job and I am the ethical candidate," Vorva said.

Vorva said there are problems concerning crime, education and roads, adding, "Career politicians are part of the problem _ they haven't addressed these problems."

Law opened the forum sponsored by the Plymouth Republican Club at the Water Club Grill . Turning quickly to the tradeport, he said it would lower property values and create unwanted aircraft noise.

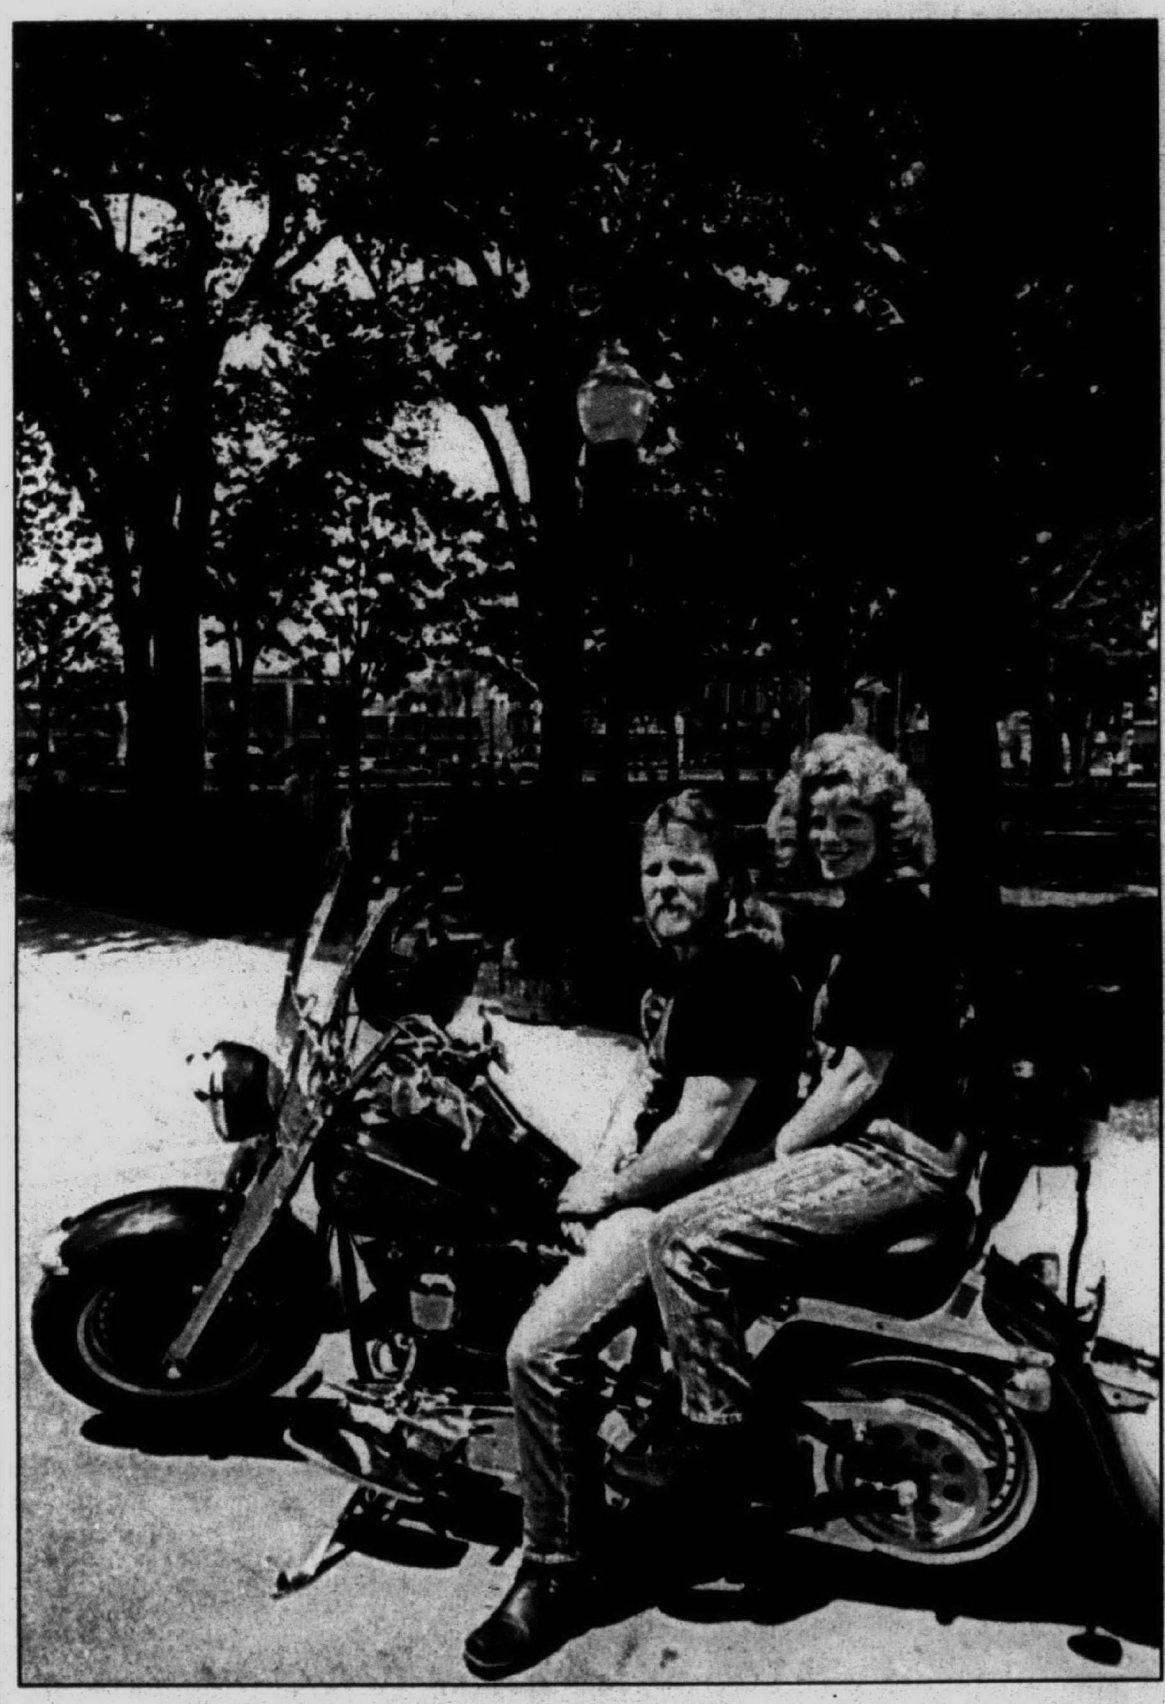

"Why, when sent to Lansing to support your district, would you support ruining your district and your community?" Law asked.

Vorva said that while he fought crime for 10 years as a police officer, "Career politicians we're giving criminals an easy street type living quarters _ air conditioning and libraries better than we have for our own children."

"I propose hard time at hard labor for criminals," he said, to reduce

Biker couple rushes to return lost $100 bill

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

To some, bikers Tom and Paula Bober might look like trouble when they're cruising on their Harley.

But there's one man who'd disagree. Because after Paula saw the man drop $100 in the street near Kellogg Park, Tom sped after him on his motorbike — to return the money.

"Part of me said I could use $100," Tom Bober said. "But my conscience would have bothered me."

It was about 8:30 p.m. Friday, July 19 when the Canton couple had their royal blue Harley parked on Main Street, to show it off, Tom said.

Paula noticed that a man getting into a car about four parking spots away had dropped something in the street.

"The guy was still sitting there in his car, he pulled out and stopped at the light and my wife was waving but he kept going," Bober said.

"I kind of hopped on my bike and started going after him down Main Street, she kept waving at him but he wouldn't stop.

"I thought this is great, I'm going to try and give this guy his money back and I'm going to get a ticket for speeding," he said.

But soon the man who dropped the money turned into the Clark gas station on Main. Bober, who has shoulder-length hair, pulled alongside.

"I motioned for him to roll his window down. He kind of looked at me for a minute and then he rolled down the window. I said 'I think you dropped this on Main Street.'

"He took the money and said, 'Can I get you something?' I told him my wife said it was yours and I just wanted to give it back," Bober said.

Bober rode his motorcycle back to Kellogg Park, and soon after the man who'd dropped the money also returned.

"He said, 'I was kind of surprised, and I really do apologize for the way I acted," Bober said, as the man acknowledged he had been wary of a biker.

It's not the first time Bober has returned lost cash.

"Two years ago I found $360 in the parking lot at the Rusty Nail," Bober said. He found the money near Christmas outside the Canton lounge, and kept it for two days.

"I ended up turning it back in, my conscience started to get me. I called them up and they said it belonged to one of the bartenders, it was his Christmas money," Bober recalled.

Chili cookoff to take chill out of October

BY JEFF COUNTS
STAFF WRITER

The chilly days of October, could be a little hotter, if a Plymouth businesswoman is able to scheduled Plymouth's Great Chili Cookoff.

The event is scheduled for noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 13, with about 25 chili cooks working their magic at The Gathering adjacent to Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth.

"We still need approval from the city," said Annette Horn, owner of the Native West gallery, who is promoting the event.

"I've been cooking chili myself for 11 years and was looking for a good cause to support," said Horn.

That good cause is the Make-A-Wish foundation, which helps children with various ailments cope with life.

"We'll be selling tickets to taste the chili being made in The Gathering to raise money," she said.

Also on tap for the even is a motorcycle display.

"We've got about 60 vintage Harley Davison motorcycles coming," she said, adding that they will be displayed along Penniman near The Gathering.

Other events expected are live country bands, line dancing demonstrations, jalapeno pepper eating contests, a salsa competition and a western barbecue dinner.

Currently, Horn is looking to line up sponsors for the event. She can be reached at 455-8838 during business hours.

Two gas stations robbed by thieves

Police are investigating two robberies of greater Plymouth gas stations last week.

Plymouth city police are investigating an armed robbery at 11:30 p.m. Monday, July 22 at the Total service station on Mill Street at Wilcox.

Police said a man described as white, 6 feet with a ragged beard, white T-shirt and jeans and long brown hair pulled a knife on a station attendant and took all the money in the cash register.

The man then fled the station, and the attendant couldn't tell if he got into a car.

In another gas station robbery, two men entered the Speedway gas station at 15255 Sheldon Road at 4 a.m. Wednesday and started talking with the male attendant, Plymouth Township police said.

After asking the attendant for directions to Detroit, one snuck up behind the attendant and grabbed him by the neck, and told him this was a robbery.

The attendant was tied up in a back room and the thieves emptied the cash register. The incident was recorded on video tape.

One suspect was described as 27, black, 5 feet 5 inches and 160 pounds with a shaved head and bad teeth wearing a green Nike T-shirt and black shorts.

The second was about 24, black, 5 feet 9 inches, 120 pounds with black hair and wearing a blue T-shirt and blue jean shorts. Police are investigating.

Woman wrestles burglar

A Plymouth township woman returned to her home on Beck Road at 5:45 p.m. July 16 to find her front door had been forced open, Plymouth township police said.

Upon looking inside she saw a man she didn't know in her house, and asked him what he was doing. He told her "I have a gun and I'm a drug addict," police said, then he started running out of the house.

The woman grabbed him by the neck and a struggle followed but the man broke free, got in a car and drove away. He was described as about 27, white, 5 feet 7 inches and 180 pounds with brown collar-length hair wearing a white T-shirt and blue jeans. Police said they're investigating solid leads on the incident.

Fire doused

After a burning telephone pole fell Wednesday in a field near the junction of Wolfriver and Winesap streets, a woman neighbor helped douse the fire with a garden hose.

The poll fell several yards from an apartment complex at about 2 p.m., a witness said.

All graduates of the old Plymouth High School _ now Central Middle School _ are invited to a reunion at 5 p.m. Sept. 20 at Bunyea's barn, 7264 E. Joy Road just west of Curtis road in Superior Township.

The old high school became a middle school in 1970 after the high schools at the education park were built.

Donations will be taken at the door for expenses. Pat Bunyea, who is helping to publicize the reunion _ her husband Guy Bunyea is a member of the class of '57 _ said that at two previous reunions about 900 people showed each time.

"You see people you don't normally see. This allows people to get together who haven't seen each other in God knows when," she said.

At the first reunion six years ago, "It started at 5 in the evening and there were still people there at 5 the next morning. Some people stayed overnight and some had campers and made a weekend of it," she said.

The reunion is being organized by the Class of '57. For more information, call the Bunyeas at 453-1589.

Hospice care receives boost from Law, Engler

Terminally ill patients in Michigan without family, friends or funds to support around-the-clock care now have a better chance of obtaining hospice services.

Gov. John Engler and state Rep. Gerald H. Law, R-Plymouth, last week took a firshand look at the benefits of hospice residence care while visiting the Angela Hospice Care Center in Livonia.

Engler ceremonially signed public acts 224 and 267 of 1996, sponsored by Law, opening up hospice options to more Michigan residents.

"Ninety-nine percent of all pain can be managed," said Law, a member of the House Health Policy Committee. "But when only those with family members available 24 hours or the money to pay a personal nurse could obtain hospice service, it left a lot of people suffering unnecessarily."

Since 1980, Michigan hospice programs have assisted dying patients in their homes. Those without the resources to be treated a home, however, were forced to live out their remaining days in hospitals or nursing homes.

Hospices try to lessen the pain of incurable illnesses, unlike medical centers which have the objectives of curing and preserving life.

Public act 224 exempts Medicaid-certified hospices from the state definition of nursing home, allowing them to operate under regulations appropriate for dying patients.

Nursing home hours are limited, while hospices provide 24-hour access to family, friends and even pets.

"We are grateful for these laws because they allow us to do an even better job than we are already doing," said Sister Mary Giovanni, president of Angela Hospice Care Center. "Until now, the only other option was to put these patients into hospitals or nursing homes. We lost control over the pain ma agement part of care, and that's so important."

Public act 267 defines hospice residences as establishments operated by a licensed hospice program that has been in business at least two years. The facility must provide 24-hour care and serve at least two patients. Also, the majority of patients must be cared for in their home.

"The purpose of hospice programs is providing in-home care," said Law. "This legislation supports that and requires programs to treat the majority of patients at home."

Quilt hanging marks church anniversary

It only took little more than two months for women in the St. John Neumann Catholic Church parish to start and complete a quilted wall hanging for the gathering space in the church on Warren Road.

The wall hanging, which is 82 inches by 85 inches, was sponsored by G.I.F.T. and the Worship Commission, and made to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the St. John Neumann parish.

In the design of the wall hanging, the parish's four commissions - christian service, faith formation, stewardship and worship - are included as well as many of the ministries and special events that are part of the parish, such as sports, family, youth ministry and music.

1995 General Excellence Award

ELECTION 96 PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP TREASURER'S RACE

Ron Edwards faces incumbent Plymouth Township treasurer Mary Brooks in the Republican

Ron Edwards

Ron Edwards, 41, is a Plymouth Township resident and a certified public accountant. He has volunteered time to the Plymouth-Canton schools and to the Plymouth District Library. The winner of the Republican primary will be on the November general election ballot, but will be unopposed. There are no Democrats in the race. The treasurer's term is four years. The salary is $48,000 a year.

How does your experience prepare you for this job?

I'm a CPA, I know what the treasurer's function should be in a business. It's taking money in and making sure it's deposited timely, and I understand that.

Plymouth city officials have proposed raising recreation fees for township residents. How can the city and township governments resolve this issue?

The township has done some things for the city, like keeping the fees the same for city and township residents at the golf course. I don't agree with what the city has done (raising recreation fees for township residents.) We have to come up with a joint agreement on how to do recreation, having a difference in fees should not exist. They don't know how to manage the cultural center. This is one community and it should be treated as one community.

Do you favor tax breaks for township industrial businesses?

Tax abatements have to be looked at on an individual basis. You have to use them in competing to get quality businesses in your community. You should get jobs back. If you do it, you have to be fair with everyone, you can't give Johnson Controls a 12-year abatement and give the other guy six.

Why should voters choose you?

I will correct the problems that have occurred in the treasurer's office. I will make sure deposits are made on a daily basis. Disbursements to the library and schools should be made according to law so it will not affect the operation of these institutions. Tax bills have come out late the last two times, the community has lost 10 days worth of interest. Mary Brooks isn't collecting the delinquent property taxes. In Canton they padlock businesses, letters are sent out. As trustee I will work to provide more recreational opportunities for children and to improve the playgrounds so they can be used as parks during the summer.

Mary Brooks

Mary Brooks, 65, has been township treasurer since 1984. She serves on the board of directors of the Michigan Municipal Treasurers Association. The winner in the Republican primary will be unopposed in the November general election. There are no Democrats in the race. The treasurer serves for four years. The salary is $48,000 a year.

I was first elected in 1984. It is a job you have to keep training for, there are so many things that keep coming up year after year. I became certified through the Michigan Treasurer's Association, and I was elected to their board of directors. It's necessary to keep going to these training sessions.

I believe that they need to talk, let the township supervisor and the committee talk and get the preliminary work done. When you bring too many people in nothing gets done. We were able to do it with the fire department. We are a close knit community, how can you distinguish one from the other? You have to come to an understanding.

In the last 12 years I have probably voted for six, maybe seven abatements. I look at each individual request and decide what is right. When I vote to approve these I look at a company that has paid their fair share, someone who's an asset to the community. I voted for Vico, they are an asset. We have so much to offer, we're close to the highway, the airport, we're centrally located _ this is a good place to be.

I know the job, I'm responsible, I'm honest, I have ethics and I care about people, my door is always open to hear their complaints or to chat. I like doing what I'm doing. Every account that I handle is in an interest-bearing account. There's a rumor that I will serve one more year and resign _ If elected I will serve my full four-year term.

McCotter takes center stage as GOP opponent stays home

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

Wayne County Commissioner Thaddeus McCotter outlined his reasons for seeking a third term at a candidate forum Thursday boycotted by his challenger in the Republican Party primary, Jeff Schroder.

"I will not waste my time in a one-sided debate in front of the McCotter fan club — this makes no sense at all," Schroder said in a press release.

Schroder added he's willing to debate McCotter in a neutral setting. But Republican Club President Tom Hickey disputed Schroder's characterization of the club's approach, as he opened the county commission candidate portion of the forum.

"As a group we do not endorse candidates in primaries," Hickey said. "Our mission is to evaluate voters in the community."

Hickey acknowledged he has in the past worked on McCotter's campaigns, but added that doesn't affect his ability to run a balanced forum.

Asked to list top issues, McCotter named taxes, roads and airports.

"In three and a half years I have addressed all three issues. I have opposed every single tax that's come before me," he said. Among them he listed the SMART bus system tax that would have cost homeowners in his 10th District a third of a mill.

McCotter said he also opposed placing the park tax on the ballot, and said Democratic county commissioners who support it "want a covert election" to encourage passage. "We haven't heard much about it," he said.

McCotter said he is working to establish a more equitable road funding formula to aid growing areas on the west side of the county.

McCotter said that with the help of fellow Republican County Commissioner Bruce Patterson they identified $20 million in unencumbered road money. "That should come back to our communities," McCotter said.

He also restated his opposition to the proposed Willow Run Tradeport which could increase air traffic noise over western Wayne County and divert economic development away from this area.

"The issue's not dead, I will continue to fight against it until I die," McCotter said.

In a question and answer portion of the forum, at the Water Club Grill, McCotter said that for the first time in 25 years work is being done to demolish, then develop, the former county facility on 900 acres just north of the Plymouth Township border at Five Mile Road. "We will not have a commercial strip there that would diminish or devastate downtown Plymouth or Northville," he said.

To get more road funding for this area, McCotter said he supports looking at the state giving road funds directly to the Conference of Western Wayne and other county conference groups, rather than the Wayne County administration.

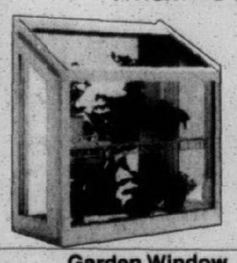

The winner of the Republican primary will face Karl Burnett, who is running unopposed in the Democratic primary. The primaries are Aug. 6.

Fred just didn't want to be bothered. But then I didn't want to be a widow.

Too many men don't bother with prostate exams.

Fact is, it's no bother. The exam takes only a few minutes of your time. Once every two years if you're in your 40s; once a year if you're over 50 or have a family history of prostate cancer.

Regular screening can detect prostate cancer early, while it is still curable.

A few minutes of your time. It's really no bother. And your family will thank you for it.

costs and free money for more beneficial programs. Holding aloft a diagram of a Navy submarine, Vorva said seamen and women are triple bunked.

"If it's a good idea for our fighting men and women, it's good enough for criminals," he said.

Law stressed his 100 percent attendance record in the past term and his ranking as one of the most conservative legislators by two watch groups. He criticized Vorva for missing some budget votes when he served in the House.

But Vorva answered, "They knew I wasn't going to vote for the budget anyway," adding he took the opportunity to attend his son's high school graduation in Oregon.

"My attendance record was 98 percent," Vorva said, adding that may have pushed Law to 100 percent attendance.

"I'm a dreamer. What I dream about is a very nice family life in a very nice community where they can learn and grow and prosper," Vorva said. "However I feel that dream is being threatened by violent crime."

"I have a lot of dreams too," Law said. "I dream of peace and quiet in the neighborhood. This tradeport legislation gives no power to local communities, it gives all the power to the county executive."

Law cited passage of a car insurance reform bill he introduced "to save our taxpayers millions of dollars."

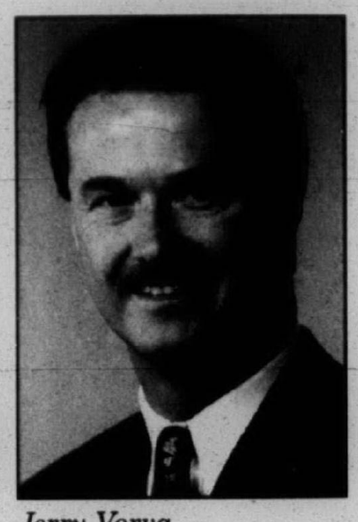

"I believe that when you go to Lansing you can have all these dreams, but you've got to go to work," he said.

Vorva said that during Law's service in the House, "He spent time in Lansing helping his Democratic friends pass tax increases. When I was in the Legislature we passed Proposal A."

Vorva charged Law "talks out of both sides of his mouth _ you're more like Bill Clinton than any Republican I know."

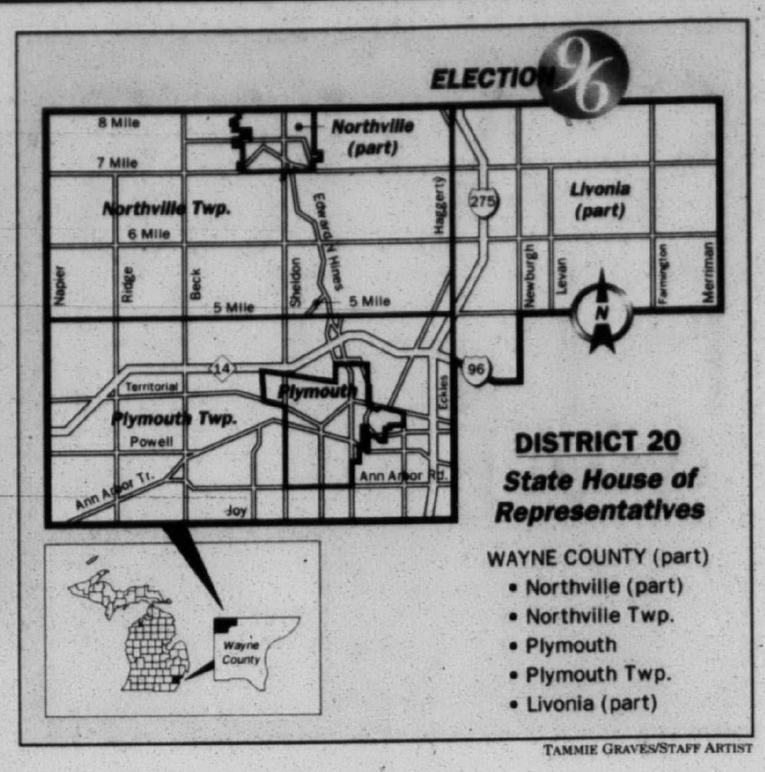

Gerald Law

Jerry Vorva

Among questions directed to the candidates was one on school funding. Vorva said the Plymouth-Canton schools get more money now than they did before Proposal A, adding school officials have to live within their budget as families do. "I'm not opposed to the voucher system," he said.

Law said the Plymouth-Canton schools are able to spend $1,000 less per pupil than in most neighboring districts, which puts the area at a disadvantage in competing for business and residents. Law said he's introduced legislation than to allow a district to seek three more mills than currently allowed.

Teen dies in auto crash

A 16-year-old Northville Township youth was killed and five other youths were injured Wednesday after the vehicle they were riding in struck a tree.

Christopher Mudge, a passenger in the 1995 Chevy Blazer, was killed when the sport-utility vehicle struck a tree while the youths were riding off-road in Salem Township.

The Michigan State Police reported the crash happened at 9:45 p.m. south of Five Mile Road between Curtis and Curry roads. There were six youths in the car, ranging in age from 12 to 16.

The lone girl in the crash, 15, was the lone car occupant still hospitalized Thursday afternoon, in fair condition at Mott Children's Hospital. All others were treated for injuries and released.

The youth killed in the crash was riding in the front seat.

Police are still investigating the cause of the accident.

State board delays decision on character education

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

"Character education" _ a stark necessity in a nation where kids run wild? or a slippery slope to church-run public schools?

The State Board of Education will take a one-month breather before deciding Aug. 21 whether to urge local school boards to implement character and citizenship development.

"We're not promising a panacea," said Bob Smith, a Livonia Kiwanis member working with the Character Education Institute of San Antonio, Texas, on offering a character curriculum. "The overwhelming consensus is that values should be taught.

"These lessons should be taught in the home. But whether we like it or not, teachers are becoming surrogate parents," Smith told the State Board at its July 24 meeting.

"Without guidelines, this resolution falls short," objected Wendy Wagenheim, Birmingham mother and lobbyist for the American Civil Liberties Union. "Before you implement, assure there is a distinction between secular and religious values.

"Religious values should be transmitted in the home, church, synagogue or mosque. Without guidelines, this resolution, in its present form, opens the door to potential intrusion of religious values."

Karen Holmes, a Livonia PTA member representing the statewide PTA association, was worried that local school district committees might be stacked in favor of one religion. As drafted, the State Board resolution encourages local districts to form "collaborative partnerships among parents, educators, business, religious and other community representatives" to select values.

"Include all religions, not just one," said Holmes. "We also need to make sure that they are not the majority of the committee but that it is balanced."

Outside the board meeting, board president Clark Durant, R-Grosse Pointe, took the opposite approach, saying the Bible and the story of Moses could be used to teach values. And if the ACLU doesn't like it, Durant said, "well, let them sue."

John Duerr, a Warren father of three, warned the resolution will open "a Pandora's box" and that "special interests are drooling" at the prospect of getting into character education. "And are you seriously considering making business a partner with parents?" he asked.

State Board member Barbara Roberts Mason, D-Lansing, noted the resolution says schools should "reinforce parental values," suggesting the opposite: "Parents should reinforce what is taught in schools. I would hate for schools to reinforce a Militia parents' values."

Board member Dorothy Beardmore, R-Rochester, agreed. "There are, unfortunately for the schools, some children who are raising themselves."

Kiwanian Smith, a former advertising man, volunteered his support of a curriculum designed by teachers in Character Education Institute. It lists a dozen values, including honor, honesty, truthfulness, generosity, kindness, justice and respect for others.

Dr. Young Jay Mulkey, president of the institute, said it uses the tools of teaching critical thinking skills and building self-esteem, teaching elementary kids to exercise self-discipline under peer pressure.

Christie Enstrom, principal of Kalamazoo's Northeast Elementary, warmly praised the program's results in that tough neighborhood. "We don't have fights any more," she said. Good behavior is reinforced through sending postcards of praise to the parents.

Detroit educator Yvonne Roberts said Character Education Institute's program "worked a change in the culture of the schools." About 15 of the 42 buildings under her wing have used the curriculum.

Beardmore noted the State Board would confine itself to recommending character education without endorsing a particular curriculum.

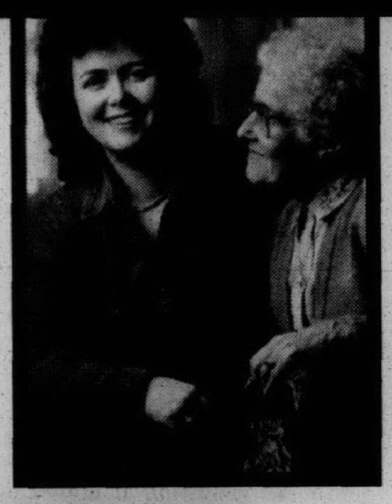

A memo by Art Ellis, superintendent of public instruction, defines character education as "the process of educating our children and young people about the common attitudes, beliefs and behaviors that parents and communities agree are important for their role as responsible citizens."

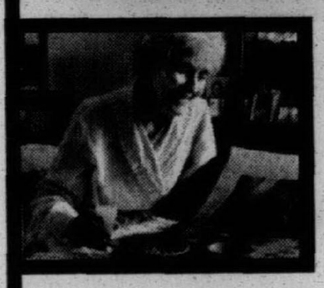

Educational literature, Ellis said, most often identifies these values: respect, responsibility, caring, trustworthiness, justice and fairness, and civic virtue and citizenship."

The State Board of Education meets at 9:30 p.m. Wednesdays, usually the third of the month, on the fourth floor of the John A. Hannah Building, on Allegan Street two blocks west of the Capitol, Lansing. Public comment is heard at the beginning of each meeting. The Associated Press contributed to this story.

"I'M HAPPIER KNOWING THAT MOM IS IN GOOD HANDS. SHE'S JUST HAPPIER, PERIOD."

State awards grant for I-275

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

What you see when you get off I-275 onto Ford Road will look a lot more pleasant in little more than a year from now.

Canton Township has been awarded a $300,000 grant from the Michigan Department of Transportation to landscape the cloverleaf interchange at Ford Road and I-275.

"It's a real big eye sore. It's a big area. When you look at the size of the property, it's hard to make an impression with what's there now," said Mike Ager, Canton resource development manager.

The grant request was submitted earlier this year with preliminary plans prepared by the township and the firm of Beckett & Raeder for the four grassy areas of the interchange.

The township has not yet received the grant money. Detailed plans for the improvements are expected to be worked on throughout the winter with construction beginning in summer 1997, Ager said.

"We really want to make an impact," Ager said, referring to dressing up the interchange.

Beautification and landscaping of the interchange, which serves as the major entrance into Canton, were listed as a priority in the Ford Road Task Force report, issued in September, 1994.

"It's pretty scrubby most of the time," said Supervisor Tom Yack, referring to the existing appearance of the interchange.

Improved signs noting the entrance into Canton will be part of the beautification project on the interchange.

"By and large it's primarily plantings and I imagine we will have to work out a maintenance agreement with the state," Yack said.

Currently the state is responsible for mowing the grassy areas of the interchange. The state contracts with Wayne County to mow.

"We will be responsible for taking care of the improvements we make," Ager said.

Improving the interchange was listed as one of the top three objectives for improving the appearance of Ford Road.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
PLYMOUTH CHARTER TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION

TO AMEND TEXT: AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND PLYMOUTH CHARTER TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 83 BY AMENDING ARTICLE XXI, SIGN REGULATIONS, OF SAID ORDINANCE RELATED TO OFF-PREMISES DIRECTIONAL SIGNS
DATE OF HEARING: AUGUST 21, 996
TIME OF HEARING: 7:30 P.M.
PLACE OF HEARING: PLYMOUTH CHARTER TOWNSHIP HALL
42350 ANN ARBOR ROAD

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of Plymouth Charter Township proposes on own motion to amend Article XXI, Sign Regulations, as follows:

A. Article XXI, SIGN REGULATIONS: Section 21.1, DEFINITIONS, presently contains no definition for off-premises directional sign.
Section 21.1, DEFINITIONS, is hereby proposed to be amended to add subitem 10., as follows:
10. Off-Premises Directional Sign: A monument sign, the sole purpose of which is to direct traffic to one or more commercial businesses which are located on premises without frontage on or visual exposure to a major thoroughfare. Such businesses shall front on a road or easement which is used for their primary public ingress and egress from the major thoroughfare. The purpose of the off-premises directional sign is to facilitate the flow of traffic, encourage the concentration of commercial uses, discourage strip commercial development, and not to advertise the business or products or services offered.
Section 21.1, DEFINITIONS, is hereby proposed to be amended renumbering the remaining items 11 through 25.

B. Article XXI, SIGN REGULATIONS: Section 21.3.2, SPECIAL SIGNS IN A C-1 AND C-2 DISTRICT: DIRECTIONAL SIGNS INTENDED TO ASSIST VEHICULAR TRAFFIC FLOW, is hereby proposed to be amended to read as follows:
2. Directional signs intended to assist vehicular traffic flow subject to the following:
(a) On-Premises Directional Signs may be permitted in the C-1 Neighborhood Shopping District and in the C-2 General Commercial District.
The numbering of the subsections is changed from (a), (b), and (c) respectively to (1), (2), and (3); the wording is unchanged.
(b) Off Premises Directional Signs may be permitted only in the C-2, General Commercial District in order to encourage the clustering of businesses, and minimize strip commercial development in accordance with the Township Master Plan, while still allowing necessary and reasonable identification of businesses, facilitating the orderly flow of traffic, and avoiding unnecessary proliferation and excessive size of signs on major thoroughfares.
(1) Off-premises directional signs are permitted only upon review and approval of the Planning Commission, subject to compliance with the following conditions:
General Conditions
a. Approval of the sign would serve to further the purposes and intents specified in subsection (b), above.
b. The Planning Commission shall determine that the C-2 zoned business has no frontage on the major thoroughfare from which it takes primary access; the premises of said business are within one thousand two hundred (1,200) feet of said thoroughfare; said business is not visible from the major thoroughfare, or is visible from the major thoroughfare but with no clear indication of how to access the business; and that adequate identification of the business and direction of traffic to the business would not be possible without an off-premises directional sign.
c. No off-premises directional sign shall be permitted without a recorded easement or executed agreement that accomplishes all of the following:
1. State that the owner of the parcel on which the sign is to be placed grants permission for the off-premises directional sign to be located on the parcel.
2. Stipulates which parcel(s) are entitled to use of the off-premises directional sign, and
3. Specifies how the sign is to be maintained and establishes a means to assure that maintenance that runs with the life of the sign.
Sign Location
d. Off-premises directional signs shall be located only on land zoned C-2 and direct traffic to only land also zoned C-2.
e. Off-premises directional signs shall be permitted only at the intersection of the access road for the business and a major thoroughfare, and only one such sign is permitted at each intersection. The business access road may be a public street, private road, or recorded access easement over which the general public has ingress/egress rights. Said sign shall be in reasonable proximity to the intersection to enable the sign to direct traffic to the site of the business being identified by the sign.
f. Off-premises directional signs shall be located entirely on private property and no closer than thirty (3) feet from the center line of the street, private road, or recorded access easement which provides access to the business. The sign shall be located a minimum of sixty (60) feet from the center line of the major thoroughfare. The sign location shall comply with the requirements of Section 23.11, Corner Visibility.
Sign Design
g. Off-premises directional signs shall be monument signs with the minimum dimensions necessary to accomplish the purpose of directing traffic; however, in no case may the sign height exceed four and one-half (4.5) feet or its area exceed twenty-five (25) square feet. These maximums apply to signs for several businesses as well as for single businesses.
h. If multiple businesses served by the same access road require the use of the same intersection for an off-premises business direction sign, the same sign shall be used.
i. Space shall be allocated on the sign to allow identification of all businesses which use the same access road to use the off-premises directional sign. A common lettering size and style shall be used, and the sign shall state only the name of the business being identified. A directional arrow may also be included on the sign. The sign base shall be of brick or decorative masonry block.
j. The ground within five (5) feet of the base of the off-premises directional sign shall be landscaped in low shrubbery, ground cover or flowers, and said landscaping shall be maintained in presentable condition.
k. Off-premises directional signs may be illuminated in accordance with Section 21.2.4, provided the illumination creates no perceptible glare on private property at a distance greater than ten (10) feet from the sign and on public streets and the access drive.
(2) The off-premises directional sign shall be maintained in sound and presentable condition. It a business that is identified on the off-premises directional sign ceases to exist at its location or changes its name, the appropriate deletion or change to the copy of the sign shall be made within thirty (30) days of the change in the business.
(3) The existence of an off-premises directional sign shall not affect the permission of any other signage that is otherwise permitted by the Zoning Ordinance (including the permitted number of "items of information"), including the following:
a. Any other signage on the same parcel as the off-premises directional sign.
b. Any other signage on the same parcel as the business identified by the off-premises directional sign.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON
REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS

Charter Township of Canton
1150 S. Canton Center Road
Canton, Michigan 48188
(313) 397-5417

On or about August 14, 1996, the above named Municipality will request the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing & Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93.383) for the following projects located in the Charter Township of Canton:
PROJECT: Barrier free access improvements, Historic Travis House, 500 North Ridge Road, Canton, Michigan. The approximate project cost is FY 1993 CDBG, $32,333.
DETERMINATION: It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and, accordingly, the Charter Township of Canton has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190). The reasons for such decision not to prepare such a statement are as follows:
The project is categorically excluded under 24 CFR 58.35 (A) (2), Special projects directed to the removal of material and architectural barriers that restrict the mobility and accessibility of elderly and handicapped persons.
An Environmental Review Record respecting the above project has been made by the Charter Township of Canton which documents the environmental review of each project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination, and copying (for a fee), upon request, at the office of the Resource Development Division between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. No further environmental review of the projects is proposed to be conducted prior to the request for release of Federal funds.
All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the Resource Development Division at the above described address. Such written comments must be received on or before August 13, 1996. All such comments so received will be considered and the municipality will not request the release of Federal funds or take administrative action on the within projects before the date specified in the preceding sentence.
CERTIFICATION: The Charter Township of Canton will undertake the project with Community Development Block Grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Act of 19 74. The Charter Township of Canton is certifying to HUD that the Charter Township of Canton and Thomas J. Yack, in his capacity of Township Supervisor, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision-making and action and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, the Charter Township of Canton may use the Block Grant Funds and HUD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. HUD will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following bases: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Applicant; or (b) that the Applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision, finding or step applicable to the project in an environmental review process.
Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58) and may be addressed to HUD at: McNamara Federal Building, 17th Floor, 477 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226. Objections to the release of funds on the basis other than those stated above will not be considered by HUD. No objection received after August 29, 1996 will be considered by HUD.

Board 'cuts' scores on proficiency test

BY TIM RICHARD
STAFF WRITER

A sample of test scores shows less than half of Michigan students are earning "proficient" marks in math and reading and less than one-third in science and writing.

"These data are preliminary," said Art Ellis, state superintendent of public instruction. "We will have no data on schools and buildings before Labor Day. Don't call your superintendent. Don't call us. We have work to do."

Otherwise there was little discussion July 24 as the State Board of Education gave 7-0 approval to "cut scores" students would have to reach to earn state-endorsed diplomas.

Students could still receive local diplomas but without state endorsements.

Students will need a cut store of 39 in math, achieved by only 48 percent; 40.5 in science, achieved by 31 percent; 29 in reading, achieved by 41 percent; and 11.5 in writing, achieved by 31 percent.

Some 102,000 students took the tests March 4-22. The new proficiency tests replace the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) tests for students about to graduate.

The scores released July 24 were based on samples of students who took the tests.

The new math test, previewed in this newspaper more than a year ago, stresses multiple-step problem solving rather than single computations.

The reading test asks students to compare the behavior of characters in different stories rather than a single story.

Some highlights of the samples:

- Boys tested higher in math and reading by 6-11 points; girls higher in reading and writing by 4-12 points.
- African Americans fared badly: 13 percent were proficient in math versus 48 percent for all students; 6 percent in science versus 31 percent for all.

Whites' and Asians' scores weren't segregated.

The State Board acted under the new School Code, which requires it to establish the level of proficiency students must meet to earn state-endorsed diplomas in each content area.

A lower level, called "novice," is also set. Students earning novice scores don't receive state-endorsed diplomas.

School district data will be available about Sept. 3; statewide data, about Sept. 16.

Aldo's shoes is worth the trip

BY EVIE HORTON
SPECIAL WRITER

There is a newcomer in town putting the spirit back into our soles...the soles of our feet, that is.

What makes this shoe company (in the U.S. market for just under a year,) so exciting is two-fold. First, they design and produce hundreds of fashion forward shoes that fit as superbly as they look.

Secondly, prices begin at a $29.99 with the majority remaining well below $99. This combination is just great business savvy in a market saturated with cheap, poorly made shoes.

Who is this stranger who has put customer service above all else? It is a company called "Aldo." I asked a customer what appeals to her about her Aldo experience and she replied, "the fun of hunting down my personal style of shoes and the sales staff's patience!"

At every leading fashion footwear house, you'll find an Aldo representative checking out the latest shoe designs for customers. They put all the best designer trends together under high standards of production, which upon inspection is quality other companies lack at prices in the same range.

Having been in business for over 20 years in Canada, Aldo is aware of today's busy woman's wants and needs. Their aim is to "make sure every customer is completely satisfied."

The hardest part of shopping in this "shoe mecca" will be narrowing your choices. I found myself falling head-over-heels for at least four pairs: two strappy sandals, one square-toed pump, a snappy platform wedge mule, and an adorable revamped Mary Jane.

Men needn't fear they have been neglected. Aldo has also set men's shoe styling on its feet. Shoes are specifically designed for the "young" and the "young at heart."

Bags and boots

Just when you thought shoes were enough, Aldo adds the spark of fine leather handbags to compliment their footwear. An added bonus, the majority of shoes are made in Italy!

So catch your breath, proceed to their locations in Fairlane Town Center, Dearborn; Lakeside in Sterling Heights, Twelve Oaks in Novi, and Briarwood in Ann Arbor. Another location is opening Aug. 16 at the Somerset Collection, North, in Troy.

Remember, Aldo has continued to evolve because they keep up with and often set the trends. So what's up for fall?

Watch for the buckle and zipper on shoes and handbags. The square toe, animal print leathers and chunk heel provide new interest, and shiny surfaces are everywhere to complement the new high tech fabrics in coats, jackets and evening-wear.

So shoe aficionados, unite! for you now have Aldo tantalizing your shoe taste-buds.

Who would have thought your foot and pocket-book could feel so good at the same time!

Aldo Attitude: Above and below are samples of the styling behind every pair of shoes, and all handbags at Aldo, the store that makes fashion fun.

Retailers braced for mall opening

The impact of the new Somerset Collection North shopping mall on its nearby retail neighbors remains to be seen, but savvy old timers are not standing idly by waiting to find out.

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

"Competition is good for everyone," is the politically correct response to inquiries about how the new shopping center in Troy will affect business everywhere else.

But while professing to welcome the new folks at the Somerset Collection North in Troy, competing malls, mainstreets and department stores are taking a hard look at the playing field and donning their battle gear.

Birmingham is busy sprucing up storefronts, remodeling dated shops, redesigning the master plan and seeking out newcomers. A watchful eye is on tenants migrating from the town to Somerset North: Bailey, Banks & Biddle, Banana Republic, Victoria's Secret, Structure, The Limited, The Gap, Roots and Polo/Ralph Lauren.

Many of these shops are divisions of The Limited, based in Columbus, Ohio. A spokeswoman explained the moves.

"Somerset North is such an incredible new facility that we couldn't pass up the opportunity. However, that center's viability will not affect our decision regarding keeping stores in other markets. We evaluate each store's profits per square foot and the decision to close or keep that store is based on performance. Your area market is so incredible it should be able to support multiple locations."

Twelve Oaks of Novi, long seen as a Somerset competitor, will complete a summer-long $10-million renovation on Aug. 14 with a careful eye on the "exclusive" tenants opening an "east-side" address at Somerset North: Franklin Mint, Guess?, H2O Plus, Right Start, Speedo, World Bead.

"When you bring in a new retailer like Nordstrom and create a new center around it, I expect shoppers will flock to check it out and the initial impact will pull from what exists in the market already," said Miles McFee, mall manager. "But after a few months, shoppers will return to what is familiar and convenient. At Twelve Oaks, we're making sure they'll find what they want here."

Eye opener: Jim Hobson of Planet Neon Sign Systems, works on Bloomfield Optical's new signature. Owners hope removal of the original sign hung in 1969, will prompt other merchants to spruce up their store fronts.

Oakland Mall in Troy is spending thousands of dollars on two new signs, an illuminated, electronic landmark visible from I-75 freeway and another at 14 Mile and John R. in Troy. The center has a new advertising slogan that counters Somerset's toney image with, "At The Oakland Mall, shop as you are."

Upscale plazas like Bloomfield at Maple and Telegraph, The Boardwalk at Orchard Lake and Maple, are evaluating their market niche and fighting the giants with unique merchandise assortments and know-the-customer-by-name personal service.

"I have concern for the independent retailers across the country with power houses like Nordstrom, Kohl's, Sports Authority and Walmart expanding, expanding, expanding," said Greg Zevo second generation owner of Greg's Shoes in the Orchard Mall, West Bloomfield.

"Where do they think all the customers are coming from? How big do they need to be?

"These guys carry such clout they can cut deals, move inventory between stores, get all sorts of perks from manufacturers. It's very tough for independents to compete."

But Zevo said his strengths include expert personal service, a neighborhood location, and specialty shoe designs.

Battle stations!

Sherman Becker, partner at Roz & Sherm, an upscale fashion boutique and shoe salon in Bloomfield Plaza, agreed.

"When the big guys come to town they make offers to your best employees and study the lines you carry. We've spent years trying to understand our customers, what they need, what they want. That's our strength. Our location is important, too.

"It makes me laugh to read all the hype about service lately. We've been serving our shoppers all along. The customer is queen. That's why we'll continue to succeed in this business."

As a shopper bonus, Roz & Sherm is giving airline credit on Northwest flights with charge purchases.

In downtown Birmingham, Dr. Ronald Hernesko and his wife Flora are hanging a new $10,000 sign on their 245 W. Maple Road storefront, and a colorful canopy is on the way. They want people to know "the old Birmingham is back."

"We're putting money into our business on this end of town," Flora said. "The store's interior will be completely remodeled soon, too. Bloomfield Optical wants to serve families from 7-70. Our eyeglass frames will be unique, our service superior."

Birmingham's Jacobson's stores have all been remodeled and updated. A concierge desk will be added in August to the valet service off the Bates Street entrance.

"The concierge will make dinner reservations for customers at any restaurant in town or order theater tickets, arrange for a personal shopper, sign out a stroller. We'll even have wet wipes and diapers available," laughed Pam Rock, promotions director.

"It's all part of our plan to make our stores more convenient and shopper-friendly for today's time-strapped customer."

Dentistry in the 90s
by Herbert M. Gardner, D.D.S. & Martha P. Zinderman, R.N., D.D.S.

GOLD INLAYS
Once the decay in a small-to-medium-sized cavity is removed from the chewing surface of a tooth, silver amalgam (a mixture of mercury, silver, tin, copper, and zinc) is usually the material of choice to fill the hole left by the drill. For larger cavities, however, the removal of the decay may not leave enough tooth structure to support a filling. If so, a filling made outside the tooth (known as an inlay) may be necessary. Most inlays are fabricated of gold in a process that begins with the dentist making a wax impression of the cavity. After a temporary filling is set in place, the wax impression is sent to a dental laboratory, where a gold casting is fabricated. This is then sent back to the dentist, who removes the temporary filling and puts the gold inlay in place. Once the necessary adjustments are made to ensure a perfect fit, the gold inlay is cemented into place, the bite tested with articulating paper, and the surface polished.
At LIVONIA VILLAGE DENTAL ASSOCIATES, we can take care of all your dental needs, including inlays. All the members of our staff are dedicated to serving you - we will be happy to answer any questions you may have. We're located at 19171 Merriman Road, where we stress preventive dental health care. CHEF LARRY JANES

Readers seek really cool recipes

Remember back in January when we were barricaded in our homes, the furnace was running non-stop, and all we could think about was how good a pot of hot soup would taste? I guess that's one of the reasons why I'll never leave Michigan; I love the seasons and really enjoy the foods they bring.

Your calls to my voice mail have once again confirmed that you want to get out of a hot kitchen and are looking for cool, healthful ways to enjoy the bounty of summer.

■ Bev Janacks of Garden City called requesting a recipe for a light, cool soup she could serve some friends coming to town for a college reunion. This recipe, dubbed Pappa al Pomodoro, is a classic summer soup made with fresh basil and vine-ripened tomatoes. The neat thing about this soup is once you begin adding the bread, it's difficult to tell what it is; a soup, casserole or cool light salad. Try it, you won't be disappointed.

SUMMER BASIL AND TOMATO BREAD SOUP

12 1-inch thick slices of French or Italian baguette, preferably day-old
½ cup extra virgin olive oil
8 vine-ripened tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped
2 cups chicken broth or stock
About 40 basil leaves, shredded or chopped fine
2 teaspoons sugar (optional)
2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar
Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste

If the bread is still fresh and still soft, toast it on both sides under the broiler. Cut the bread slices in half into semi-circles. In a mixing bowl, toss the bread in half the olive oil. Combine the bread, tomatoes and broth in a 4-quart pot. Stir in the remainder of the ingredients. Season with salt and pepper and allow to sit in the refrigerator for at least 1-2 hours, then ladle into chilled bowls. Serves 6.

Recipe from: "Splendid Soups" by James Peterson, (Bantam Books, copyright 1993).

■ Mildred McCormack of Southfield called about a recent story on grilling and wanted to know where she could buy some "lump" charcoal. Your best bet is to locate a specialty store that sells and services barbecues and grills. I like Town & Country Hardware in Garden City.

■ Sheila of Rochester Hills wanted to know how long eggs keep in the refrigerator. My home economist experts recommend never keeping eggs beyond the expiration date clearly marked on each carton.

■ Who would have thought that a month ago, when I mentioned momma's green bean casserole, that I would get about a half dozen calls from readers who had no idea what I was talking about. The recipe is the epitome of comfort food, and I wouldn't consider it a Janes Gang family function without the gold Corning casserole filled to the rim.

ORIGINAL GREEN BEAN CASSEROLE

2 cans (16 ounces each) green beans, drained
¾ cup milk
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
1 can (2.8 ounces) French Fried Onions

Combine beans, milk, soup, pepper and ½ can of French Fried Onions. Pour into a lightly greased 1½ quart casserole. Bake, uncovered at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes. Top with remaining onions, and continue baking 10 minutes longer. Serves 6.

■ Frank Lomongolo of Rochester is raving about his crop of fresh basil. He's looking for great recipes. Well Frank, this recipe is great tossed with pasta, spread on bread, or served with grilled poultry or fish. It's a classic.

BASIL PESTO

1½ cups fresh basil leaves
2 cloves garlic
¼ cup pine nuts
¾ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
¾ cup olive oil

In a blender or food processor, chop the basil, garlic and pine nuts. Add Parmesan cheese and with the motor running, slowly drizzle the olive oil in a slow stream. Scrape down sides of bowl, cover and refrigerate. Makes a little more than 2 cups.

LOOKING AHEAD

What to watch for in Taste next week:

■ Focus on Wine

Taters are tops anytime

ALBERTO CULVER COMPANY

Potato Possibilities: Zesty Greek Style Potato Salad and Better-Than-Pizza Potatoes are delicious ways to add zip to summertime menus.

There's no doubt – America's favorite vegetable is the potato. In fact, the average American eats about 124 pounds of potatoes each year. We include potatoes in one of every three meals we eat.

From side dishes, to snacks, to center-stage entrees, potatoes populate our diet. And "diet" is the operative word here, because the 'taters are a dieter's dream.

The scoop on the spud is this: They're virtually free of fat, sodium and cholesterol, only about 120 calories each, and packed with potassium and vitamin C. When baked, broiled, boiled, roasted or even grilled, potatoes can still be low in fat and calories, but high in flavor and energy.

"Use Idaho potatoes for baking, and small new California and so-called Red Bliss potatoes for potato salad," suggests Irena Chalmers in "The Great Food Almanac — A Feast of Facts from A to Z", (Collins Publishers San Francisco, 1994). "Cook new potatoes unpeeled and start them in cold salted water."

Every season is potato season, they're available year-round. Summertime barbecues and picnics wouldn't be complete without potato salad, but does the old "standby recipe" need some pizzazz? Greek Style Potato Salad has the zippy taste of feta cheese and lemon juice.

GREEK STYLE POTATO SALAD

1-½ to 2 pounds potatoes, washed
½ cup crumbled feta cheese thoroughly rinsed and drained
1 medium onion, peeled, cut in half, then thinly sliced
½ cup fresh parsley, coarsely chopped
½ teaspoon Salt-Free Mrs. Dash Extra Spicy Seasoning
3 teaspoon Salt-Free Mrs. Dash Garlic and Herb Seasoning
1 teaspoon oregano
⅓ cup lemon juice
2 tablespoon olive oil
2 tablespoon vinegar

Boil potatoes until firm but tender. Do not overcook (takes about 15 to 20 minutes). Cool by placing hot pot of potatoes in sink and gently running cold water over potatoes. Drain thoroughly. Cut potatoes into 1/2-inch cubes. Place in a large bowl with the rest of the ingredients and toss lightly, mixing well. Serves 8. (Per Serving: 150 calories, 5g fat, 85mg sodium, 23g carbohydrates, 5mg cholesterol, 3g protein).

A potato can be a main dish! Better-Than-Pizza Potatoes are Italian-flavored twice-baked potatoes. When accompanied by a healthy, fresh green salad, you'll enjoy a low-cal "pizza experience," guilt-free.

BETTER-THAN-PIZZA POTATOES

4 medium potatoes, about 6 ounces each, baked
4 teaspoon Molly McButter Natural Butter Flavor Sprinkles
¼ teaspoon oregano leaves, crushed
¼ cup red and green bell peppers, chopped
½ cup canned diced tomatoes, drained
4 tablespoon shredded low-fat mozzarella cheese
Mrs. Dash Extra Spicy Seasoning, to taste

Slice open tops of baked potatoes. Scoop potato from shells into bowl; add Molly McButter and mix well. Add oregano, red and green bell peppers and diced tomatoes; mix well. Spoon into potato shells. Sprinkle with cheese. Top with diced tomatoes. Bake in a 350°F. oven 10 minutes or until potatoes are heated through and cheese is melted. Shake on Mrs. Dash Extra Spicy Seasoning, to taste. Makes 4 servings. (Per Serving: 160 calories, 1g fat, 270mg sodium, 34g carbohydrates, 0mg cholesterol, 4g protein). Recipes courtesy of Alberto Culver Company.

Potatoes are also delicious grilled. Kelly McCune, author of "Vegetables on the Grill," (HarperPerennial, 1992), says "potatoes will cook quickly if sliced into rounds or cut into chunks and skewed on metal skewers (the metal conducts heat and cooks the potatoes on the inside."

Her recommendations for potatoes on the grill are white, red, Yukon Golds, new potatoes and yellowfins. "These all have a dense texture and buttery flavor and don't dry out as easily as the russets. Look for firm potatoes without blemishes, sprouts, or green spots."

To grill potatoes: Wash the potatoes thoroughly, but do not peel. Slice into rounds or ovals, quarter, halve or cube them. Brush with oil and grill over medium-hot coals for 15 to 20 minutes, depending on size. Potatoes should be tender and browned.

• See more recipes inside.

The Practical Potato Primer

- One medium potato averages 120 calories; 0g fat; 0g cholesterol; 5mg sodium; 27g carbohydrates; 3g protein; and 680mg potassium.
- Brown potatoes are best for baking; rounded or long whites are preferred for boiling and baking and the small red ones are ideal for boiling or roasting. "New" potatoes – the small ones that are dug early before the skins have set – are best boiled or steamed.
- Select loose potatoes that are well-formed, smooth, firm, with eyes and no discoloration, cracks, bruises or soft spots. Avoid "green" potatoes. They have been exposed to light and have a bitter taste.
- Do not wash your potato before storing. Potatoes can be safely stored in a dry, dark place for three months at 45 to 50 degrees Fahrenheit.
- Do not store potatoes in the refrigerator. Below 40 degrees, potato starch turns to sugar, making the potato too sweet. Too cold storage also darkens potatoes during cooking.
- You don't have to peel your potatoes. Just scrub clean with a brush under water.

Peaches are ancient history and still news

BY CHRISTINE VENEMA
HOME ECONOMIST

Few fruits are as rich in lore or are grown so extensively throughout the world as peaches. References to "tao" or peach have been found in Chinese writings of the 5th century B.C. Not only did the Chinese cultivate the peach, but they believed it was a symbol of long life and immorality. Taken west along the caravan routes to Asia Minor, the peach flourished in the gardens of Persia, where it became know as the "Persian Apple." Later the peach spread to Europe and on to the New World via the first Spanish explorers. The first commercial peach-growing venture in the United States started in the early 19th century.

Yellow-flesh peaches are a fair source of vitamin A. When ripe, they also provide a fair amount of vitamin C. A half cup of sliced raw yellow-fleshed peaches will provide more than 20 percent of the vitamin A you need in a day. But the amount of vitamin A in the white variety is negligible.

There is no set of easy rules for use in selecting peaches. Do not let the pretty blush on the peach fool you. The blush makes peaches look attractive but is no sure sign of ripeness or sweetness; instead notice the background color. It should be a creamy yellowish color. Avoid hard peaches with green background color; they are immature, lack flavor and will never ripen properly. Color varies with variety. Peaches may be yellow, yellow blushed, red in varying amounts, white or white blushed.

Keep firm, ripe peaches at room temperature three or four days until fully ripe. Keep fully, ripe peaches in the refrigerator.

One pound peaches equals three medium-sized peaches or two cups sliced.

PEACH COBBLER

This peachy recipe is from "Celebrate the Harvests! – Michigan Farm Markets and Farm Stands," by Don and Nelle Frisch, (William B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, 1995). Iris Mann of Mann Farms in Fennville has adapted this recipe from her Betty Crocker cookbook.

FILLING
½ cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
4 cups peaches, peeled and sliced
1 teaspoon lemon juice

TOPPING
3 tablespoons vegetable shortening
1 cup all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F. Mix the ½ cup sugar, cornstarch, and cinnamon in a two-quart saucepan, then stir in the peaches and lemon juice. Cook, stirring constantly, until it thickens. Bring to a boil and continue stirring for one minute. Pour the mixture into an ungreased two-quart glass casserole and put it in the oven to keep warm.

To make the topping, cut the shortening into the flour, add the tablespoon of sugar, the baking powder, and the salt, and continue cutting until the mixture resembles fine crumbs. Stir in the milk. Then drop by spoonfuls onto the hot peach mixture and bake until the topping is golden brown, about 30 minutes. Serves four to six.

Pacific Rim inspires grilled chicken, corn

AP — For a backyard barbecue, serve grilled chicken and fresh corn on the cob. The recipes are from chef Thierry Rautureau of Rover's in Seattle. The chicken is flavored with Dijon mustard, chopped garlic, grated ginger, soy sauce and sesame oil.

PACIFIC RIM BARBECUE CHICKEN

Charcoal: Indirect
Gas: Indirect-Medium Heat

- 4 to 4 1/2-pound whole free-range chicken
- 1 cup Dijon mustard
- 4 teaspoons chopped garlic
- 4 teaspoons grated ginger
- 4 teaspoons thyme
- 1/2 cup soy sauce
- 1/2 cup sesame oil
- 1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- 4 teaspoons chopped shallots

Cut chicken into 4 portions, removing backbone.

Whisk remaining ingredients together for the marinade. Pour over chicken pieces, turning to coat well. Cover chicken and marinate overnight in the refrigerator.

Remove from marinade and place chicken pieces, skin side down, on the cooking grate directly over the heat source. Sear 2 to 3 minutes on each side. Move chicken to center of cooking grate and complete cooking by indirect heat. Cook 1 to 1 1/2 hours to the internal temperature of 180 degrees F. Serve hot with grilled corn and cannelloni beans or other vegetable of your preference. Makes 4 servings.

GRILLED CORN ON THE COB

- 4 ears of corn in the husk
- Olive oil
- Salt and pepper

Leave corn in the husk and brush with olive oil. Season each ear with salt and pepper; wrap in aluminum foil. Place on the cooking grate directly above the heat source and cook 20 to 25 minutes.

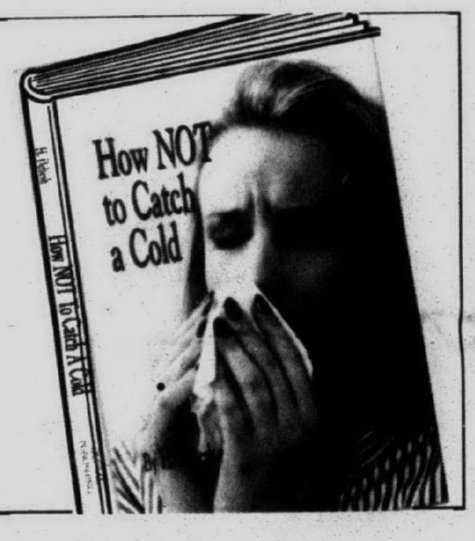

Protect your hands with gloves to remove the husk and silk from the corn before serving. Makes 4 servings.

Melon delight: Strawberry soup in melon bowls is pretty to look at, and good to eat.

Medley of melons refreshing

The refreshing juiciness, brilliant color and sweet flavor of melons make them a summer favorite. Melons are low in calories and the red and orange varieties, such as cantaloupe and watermelon, are rich sources of vitamin C and beta-carotene — antioxidants which have been linked to lower cancer risk. Nutritious, easy to prepare, and a natural addition to any meal, melons represent what's best about summer eating.

To take the mystery out of selecting the best melons, always look for fruit with good color and avoid any that are misshapen or bruised. Melons develop optimum flavor and juiciness when kept at room temperature and are ready to be eaten when the rind gives slightly at the stem. Once ripe, there are a number of simple, delicious ways you can incorporate summer melons into every aspect of your daily diet.

Start the day with a healthy slice of melon for breakfast, as a refreshing alternative to juice. Make a refreshing hot-weather snack by pureeing watermelon chunks, then freezing the juice into "pops." Fresh melon chunks and lean ham make an excellent luncheon entree. Dessert is a guiltless treat when you combine cubed cantaloupe and mixed berries with plain non-fat yogurt.

Don't forget to bring melons to your summer cookout. Gently toss cubes of cantaloupe and honeydew in a mixture of orange marmalade, lemon juice, low-sodium soy sauce and fresh grated ginger. Skewer the fruits and cook, covered with a grill lid, over hot coals for two to three minutes on each side. Remove the fruit to a bowl, cover and chill until ready to serve.

Melon's sweetness provides the perfect counterpoint to any fiery dish in a salsa made by combining one cup each of cubed honeydew, cantaloupe and watermelon with a seeded and finely chopped jalapeno pepper, two tablespoons of fresh lime juice and a quarter cup chopped fresh basil. Mix well, cover and chill for at least three hours and you have a moist, tangy topping for plain, grilled fish.

The natural shape of melons make them creative, edible vessels for serving summer salads, light desserts and even cool drinks. Wash and cut a small melon in half and remove the seeds, replacing them with a scoop of low-fat cottage cheese, non-fat frozen yogurt or sherbet, chicken salad or fresh fruit salad. Make your watermelon an eye-catching punch bowl by cutting it in half lengthwise and removing the pulp with a melon ball cutter. Turn the melon shell over and drain. To serve, fill the melon with your favorite iced fruit punch and garnish with melon balls.

Strawberry soup in Melon Bowls serves up fresh fruit flavor in a nutritious serving dish. Serve this delicately-flavored soup as a refreshing appetizer, a light soup course, or dessert.

STRAWBERRY SOUP IN MELON BOWLS

- 2 pints fresh strawberries, washed and hulled
- 1 cup orange juice
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons plus 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 cantaloupes
- 1/2 teaspoon cornstarch
- Dash of ground cloves
- 1 cup skim milk

Puree the strawberries with the orange juice in a blender or food processor and pour into a 4-quart saucepan. Remove a few spoonfuls of the puree to a small cup and stir in the cornstarch until well blended. Return the mixture to the saucepan, and add the cinnamon and cloves.Stirring frequently, heat the puree over a medium heat until the mixture comes to a boil. Cook for one minute and remove from the heat, stirring in the lemon juice and sugar. When the mixture has cooled, pour the milk into a large bowl and gradually add the strawberry mixture to it, stirring constantly. The soup should be covered and chilled for 3 hours.Cut the cantaloupes into halves, scoop out the seeds and turn them upside down to drain. To serve, fill each melon half with chilled soup.

• The Gleason Family of Plymouth just returned from the Cherry Festival in Traverse City and brought home one of the first batches of sour cherries (they're running late this year because of the cool spring) and were hoping I could provide a cherry pie recipe.

From momma's recipe box:

FRESH CHERRY PIE

- 2 rounds prepared pie dough (unbaked)
- 4 cups fresh sour cherries, pitted
- 2 2/3 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca
- 1 1/3 cups sugar
- 2 drops almond flavoring or Kirsch
- 2 tablespoons butter

Line a 9-inch pie pan with one round of prepared dough. Set aside. Wash, drain and pit the cherries and place them in a medium bowl. Add tapioca, sugar and flavoring and toss gently to coat. Allow to stand for 15 minute.

Preheat oven to 450 degrees F. Pour fruit mixture into the prepared pie shell and dot with 2 tablespoons butter. Cover pie with another crust or lattice. Bake for 10 minutes at 450 degrees F., then reduce heat to 350 degrees and continue baking for 40 minutes, or until golden grown. Makes one 9-inch pie.

• Lorna DeSwist of Farmington Hills called requesting a recipe she enjoyed while visiting family and friends in Florida. She claims it was nothing more than a parsley dressing poured over fresh sliced tomatoes. This took some searching, but I stumbled upon this dressing and tried it over fresh tomatoes. Wow!

PARSLEY DRESSING FOR FRESH TOMATOES

- 2 cups fresh parsley
- 1/2 cup chopped chives
- 1 cup sweet pickles, drained
- 2 cloves garlic
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 1/2 cup red wine vinegar
- 1/4 cup tarragon vinegar

In a food processor, combine parsley, chives, pickles and garlic and process until finely chopped. Stir in oil, vinegars and toss well to mix. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Can be made three days ahead. Serve over a platter of chilled, sliced tomatoes. Makes about 4 cups dressing. Can be kept, refrigerator for up to 2 weeks in the refrigerator.

• Speaking of a cool, healthful way to enjoy the summer, I was really impressed with the new fruit "gelees" by Yoku Moku available for purchase in the Epicure Shop of Neiman Marcus in Troy. Each of these fat-free desserts contains fewer than 90 calories. The price, $27 for eight single servings, might seem a bit ludicrous; however, I couldn't imagine a lighter, healthier indulgence on a sultry summer's eve.

Ann Arbor throws jazzy soiree for premiere of 'Kansas City'

The "Kansas City" benefit begins with music at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 4 at the Michigan Theatre, 603 E. Liberty (near State) in downtown Ann Arbor. Both the $25 and $12.50 tickets can be purchased at the Michigan Theatre (313) 668-TIME, Schoolkids Records (right near the theater) and at all Ticketmaster locations (810) 645-6666.

Robert Altman made the movie "Kansas City" as a tribute to the town where he spent his formative years in the 1930s. In a tribute of another kind, he has allowed the film to enjoy its Great Lakes premiere in Ann Arbor, where he spent some of his most productive years in the 1980s.When moviegoers enter the Michigan Theatre this Sunday evening, they will be greeted by actors dressed in Prohibition-era clothing.

A half-hour jazz concert will precede the film, along with a special appearance by jazz great James Carter, who appears prominently in the film.All proceeds from the benefit (the only chance to see the film before its August 16 opening) go to the University of Michigan's Program in Film and Video Studies and the Michigan Theatre.

"Kansas City" is both a nostalgic and dramatic look at the Missouri town during what some would call its heyday. Jennifer Jason Leigh plays the fast-talking Blondie, who kidnaps a senator's drug-addicted wife (Miranda Richardson) then pressures the senator to speed up her boyfriend's release from a group of black gangsters.

Interspersed are scenes at the Hey Hey Club, a local jazz haven run by Seldom Seen (an amazing performance by Harry Belafonte.)

The movie restages the legendary "cutting contests," where musicians like Coleman Hawkins and Lester Young would try to one-up each other on the saxophone.

Writer/director Altman was just a kid when the real-life Hey Hey Club was in full swing. "I used to go to those clubs from the time I was 15 on," he said during a recent interview in New York.

"I probably heard Hawkins and all of these guys playing but I didn't know their names then." Altman spent quality time in Ann Arbor in the 1980s, where he worked with the theater department and even produced a film there, 1984s "Secret Honor," a one-man monologue about the final days in office of President Richard Nixon.

Two levels of tickets are available for Sunday night's benefit. The $25 reserved seat tickets guarantee admission to the after-film "Speakeasy Soiree."

Win tickets to movie premiere

Be one of the first six readers to correctly name five of Robert Altman's films to win two tickets to the premiere screening of the new Robert Altman film, "Kansas City," 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 4, at the Michigan Theatre.Send or fax entries to: Keely Wygonik, Entertainment Editor, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, Inc., 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, MI 48150. To fax, call (313) 591-7279.

After the screening, reserved seating patrons will be escorted through a secret exit, to a Speakeasy Soiree at Zanzibar Restaurant. Guests must know the password to get past the "gun-toting guards" at the back alley door of the Zanzibar. Inside, the 1930s jazz club atmosphere will continue with live jazz, Pan-tropical appetizers and cocktails, giving patrons a chance to mingle with celebrity guests.

'Purple Noon' kicks off DFT season

BY JOHN MONAGHAN
SPECIAL WRITER

The Detroit Film Theatre screens Fridays through Mondays at the Detroit Institute of Arts, 5200 Woodward. Tickets $5.50; $4.50 students/seniors. Call (313) 832-2730 for more information.

The Detroit Film Theatre has often paid tribute to the ground breaking French films of the early 1960s, collectively known as the "French New Wave." So it's not surprising that it should kick off their new season with a rediscovered footnote from the period called "Purple Noon." Playing Aug. 2-4, the movie stars Alain Delon as an amoral American recruited by a wealthy businessman to retrieve the man's playboy son. Directed by Rene Clement, the movie was penned by Patricia Highsmith, author of "Strangers on a Train."

Launching the Monday night series on Aug. 5 are a pair of American B-films considered favorites of director Martin Scorsese: "Murder By Contract" (1958) and "5 Against the House" (1955). The schedule, which runs through December 9, continues the tradition of American and international premiers and rereleases.

Another "New Wave" classic, Jacques Demy's musical "The Umbrellas of Cherbourg" (1964) returns, prompted by the buzz from last season's screenings, for one night on Sept. 9.Wallace and Grommit, who charmed DFT audiences with their Oscar-winning "Wrong Trousers," return with a whole batch of short films and commercials from their creator, Aardman Animation. The highlight here: the Detroit premiere of the new Wallace and Grommit short, "A Close Shave," directed by Nick Park.The Alloy Orchestra, who performed along with Fritz Lang's silent masterpiece "Metropolis" in a sellout performance last year, return with that film and two others on Sept. 6-9. On the schedule: F.W. Murnau's Dracula-inspired "Nosferatu" (1922) and Tod Browning's "The Unknown" (1927) starring Lon Chaney, Sr.

The Grand Prize winner at this year's Cannes Film Festival, "Secrets and Lies," plays Oct. 11-13. Directed by Britain's Mike Leigh ("Life is Sweet," "Naked"), it's a bittersweet story about a woman coming to grips with her life and relentlessly bitter 27-year-old daughter.

If you missed the Ann Arbor Film Festival this Spring, you'll have your chance at highlights when the DFT unreels 18 short films (some four hours) on Aug. 19. Stay for just one hour or for all four, the schedule promises, and you'll get a rich taste of what this world-renowned festival is all about.Also among the highlights:

The 1995 docu-drama "From the Journals of Jean Seberg" (Sept. 23), followed by Seberg herself in Otto Preminger's 1958 "Bonjour Tristesse" (Sept. 30), a rare treat in restored color and CinemaScope; "Rendezvous in Paris," the latest from French director Eric Rohmer Nov. 8 -10; and a 20th anniversary rerelease of Martin Scorsese's "Taxi Driver" Dec. 6-8.

Since that last local call cost you a whole nickel, it's fair to ask what you got for your money.

1. You get a price that hasn't risen since 1990.

You can't get much for a nickel these days. Maybe a gumball. Yet, for about a nickel you can make a local phone call from home and talk all day. On top of that, you get a lot of products and services you probably hadn't thought of.

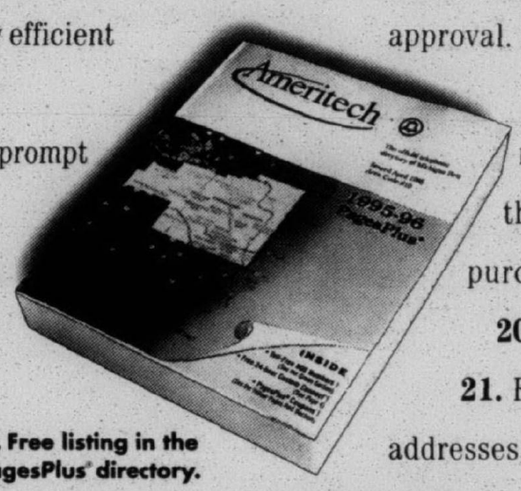

1. Ameritech's local rates remain at the same low rate as in 1990. In fact, some of our states have the same low rates they did in 1984.

2. You get 4,900 Ameritech® operators. Extremely efficient people who answer 2.3 million calls per day.

3. You get a better than 99.9% reliability rate—a prompt dial tone 99.9% of the time you pick up the phone.

4. You get nearly 60,000 Ameritech employees. And they're all right here in this five-state region.

5. 7,300 of them are technicians trained to answer every one of the 3.9 million requests that we receive every single year.

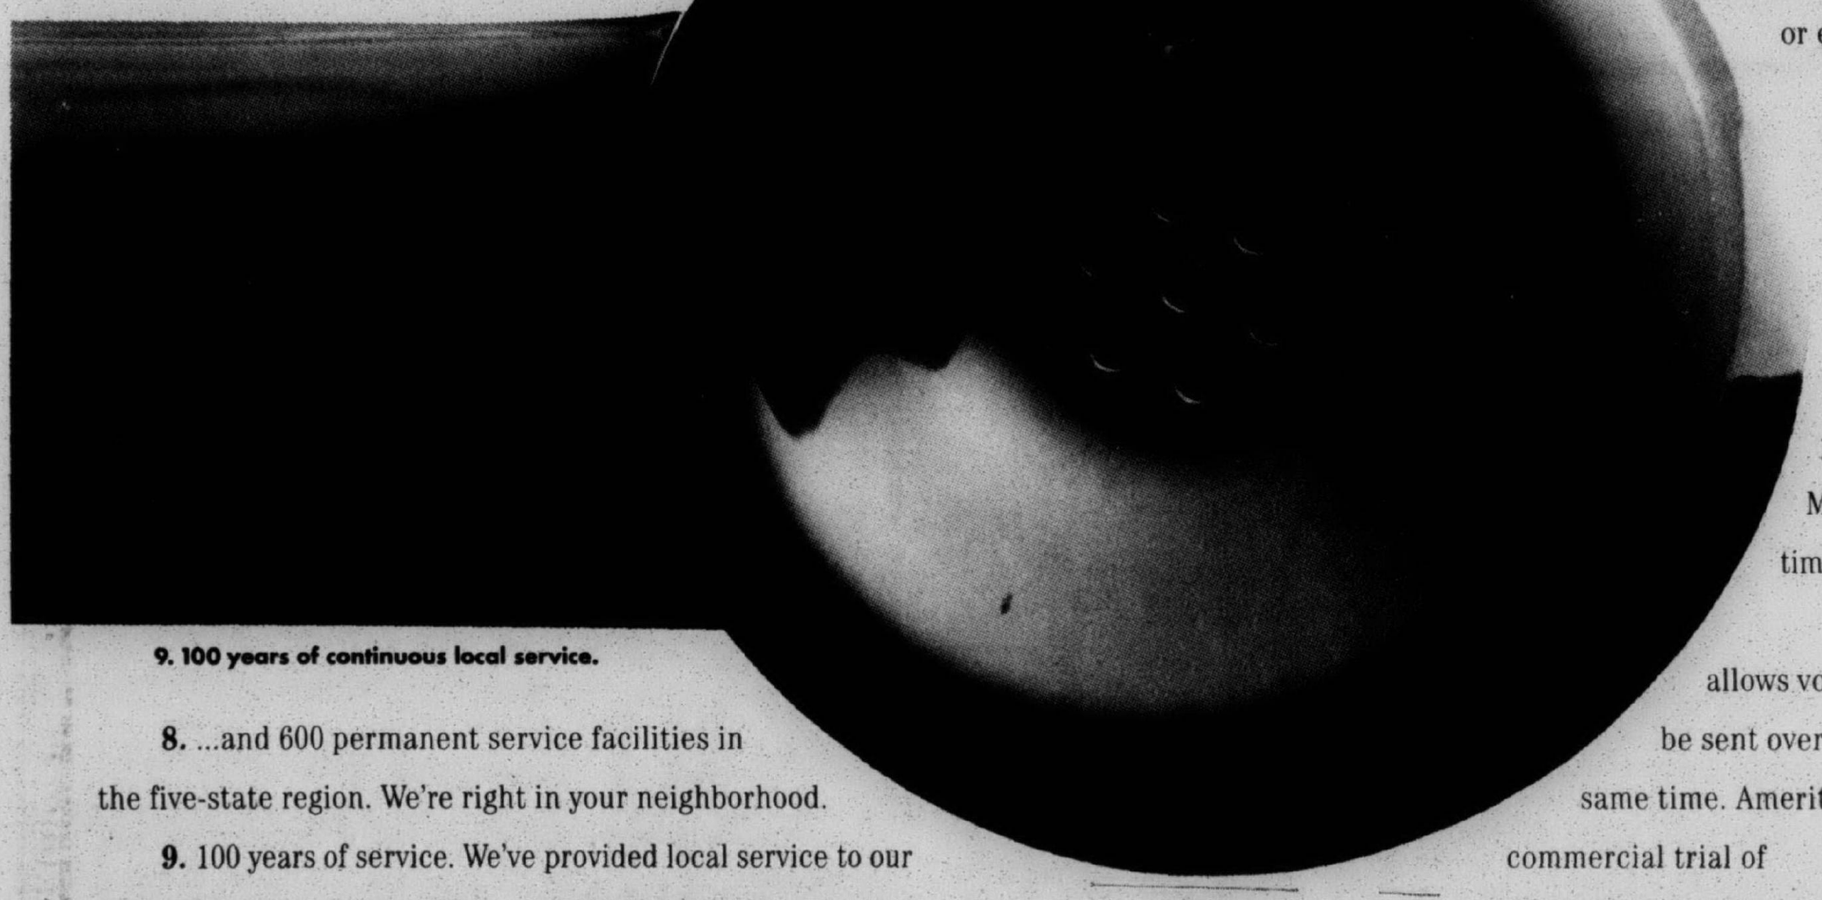

21. Free listing in the PagesPlus® directory.

6. Two billion dollars in the Midwest. That's what Ameritech invests in the network each year to make sure that every call you make goes through.

7. We maintain 19,000 service vehicles,...

7. 19,000 service vehicles.

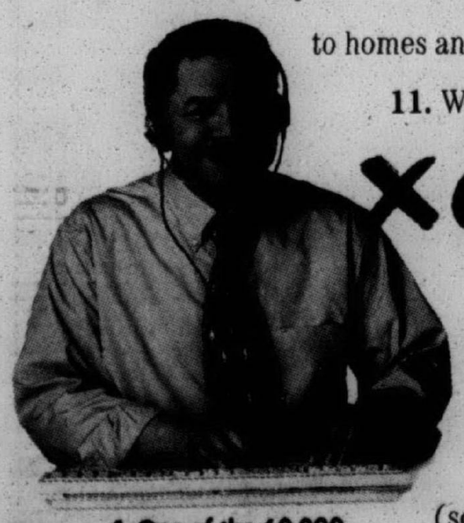

9. 100 years of continuous local service.

8. ...and 600 permanent service facilities in the five-state region. We're right in your neighborhood.

9. 100 years of service. We've provided local service to our region for over a century. We've put through virtually every call you've ever made to or from Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana.

10. The experience that comes only with providing 18 million access lines to homes and businesses.

4. One of the 60,000 Ameritech employees in your area.

11. We've installed over a million miles of fiber optic cable in the Midwest.

×60,000

12. We put in some 242,000 pay telephones in the five-state area, so you can be assured there's always one nearby.

13. Easy-to-use services like Call Waiting (so you never miss a call when you're on a call).

14. Established distance learning networks that serve nearly 400 local schools, colleges, and universities.

15. Given free cellular phones, pagers, and airtime for eligible neighborhood watch groups. Through our Cellular Patrol™ program, we're helping people take back control of the neighborhoods they live in.

16-17. Provide pay-per-use services that are there when you need them. Like Repeat Dialing and Automatic Callback.

18. Provide "Slamming" protection. We can help prevent over-eager long distance providers from switching your long distance service without your approval. No kidding, this stuff really happens.

19. Ameritech Complete Card. A no-annual-fee VISA® or MasterCard® that offers a cash return on your purchases as well as your phone calls.

20. Braille and large-type billing. For our visually impaired customers.

21. Free listing in the PagesPlus® directory. With options to add e-mail addresses and World Wide Web URLs in some directories.

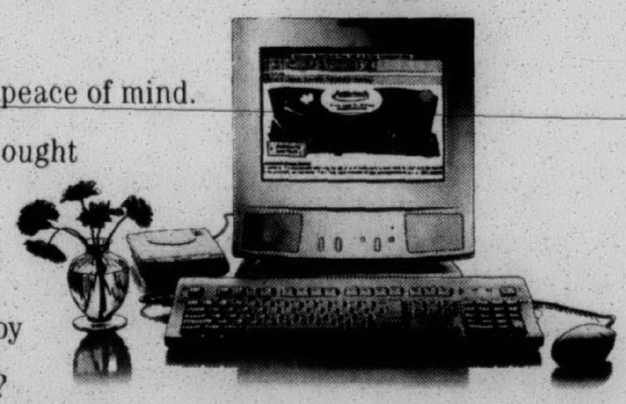

22. Convenient Ameritech calling cards.

23. An incredibly easy-to-navigate Internet site that can give you quick answers to questions about Ameritech's products, services, or emerging technology.

24. Networks that help hospitals share information at incredible speed. Thanks to Ameritech, a specialist in Milwaukee can watch your MRI being done in Madison. It not only saves time, it saves lives.

25. ISDN expertise. ISDN allows voice and data signals to be sent over the same line at the same time. Ameritech carried out the first commercial trial of ISDN service in 1986 and it is quickly becoming the wave of the future.

23. An incredibly easy-to-navigate Internet site.

26. And last but not least, peace of mind. People seldom give a second thought to their Ameritech service. It's always there whenever they need it, rain or shine. Do we enjoy being taken for granted like this? Well, with a reliability rate of 99.9%, this sort of thing comes with the turf.

Stick with the one that works.

Playoffs favor Spartans, Falcons

For the first 38 games of the Metro Summer Hockey League season, there were precious few surprises. Once the pecking order was in place - which teams were best - not much altered it.

In other words, no upsets.

But that was pre-playoffs. Now the end-of-the-season tournament is upon us, which means it's time to make a few waves.

That's exactly what the Huskies did Tuesday night on the Plymouth Cultural Center ice. Facing the Bakes Conference-leading Falcons, the last-place Huskies had seemingly little chance.

But they didn't play that way. Five third-period goals pulled them from behind to a 9-5 triumph.

The loss was only the second of the season for the Falcons. The win was just the second of the season for the Huskies.

SUMMER HOCKEY

Ryan Skaleski's two goals led the Huskie upset. Kevin Swider, Jason Schoenberg and Jeremy Klosowski each added a goal and two assists, and Dominic Catanzarite had a goal and one assist.

Ryan LaChance, Brent LaFond and Walt Bartels each added goals, with Dave West picking up three assists and Brian Hannigan and Kyle Kosior getting two apiece.

Greg Winegarden went all the way in goal for the Huskies.

For the Falcons, Jesse Hubenschmidt (from Redford-Detroit Catholic Central), the league-leader in goals scored, collected three more and added one assist. David Scott and Mike Klinger got one goal and one assist each.

The Falcons led 3-2 after one period and 5-4 after two. Skaleski's goal early in the third period tied it for the Huskies, and Klosowski's marker with 10:41 remaining put them ahead to stay. Three more goals in the final 6:47 clinched it.

Bulldogs 9, Wolverines 6: Dustin Sventy scored twice and assisted on four more for the BulldogsTuesday as the night proved to be one for the underdogs at Plymouth.

Both last place teams won with upsets. The 'Dogs overcame a 4-2 first-period Wolverine lead, narrowing the gap to 4-3 entering the second and

OBSERVER SPORTS SCENE

World Series-bound

The Michigan Indians, a Sandy Koufax League (13-14 year olds) baseball travel team, proved age and experience isn't everything. Playing in the Little Caesars League, the Indians posted a 21-1 record - even though they are all 13 year olds.

The Indians also were best in the AAU Michigan-Ohio League and the Tri-State League, which are made up of teams from Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

Their performance allowed them to host a regional playoff July 19-20 against a team from Illinois, which came into the game with a 53-10 record. Only two of the best-of-three-games were needed - the Indians won, 11-2 (a five-inning mercy) and 8-2.

That put the Indians into the Continental Amateur Baseball Association World Series, scheduled for Aug. 1-10 in Tulsa, Okla. First-round opponents include teams from North Carolina, Oklahoma, New York, Puerto Rico, Guam and Florida. The final round will be Aug. 7-9.

Team members are: from Canton, Jonathon Johnson, Bryan Kay and Jonathan Loos; from Plymouth, Greg Lenhoff, Philip Marrone, Jay Sofen and Oliver Wolcott; from Garden City, Jason Allen, Danny Childs and Justin Ockerman; from Farmington Hills, Blair Weiss; from Lathrup Village, Brandon Brock; from Wayne, Jonathan Judd; from South Lyon, Jason Rohraff; from Southfield, Andrew Smith.

The team is coached by Greg Lenhoff, Ken Ockerman, Matt Smith and Nick Marrone.

Golf standouts

Katie Murinas and Katie Collins are used to finishing in close vicinity to each other on the golf course. Which is just what happened at the Etonic Junior Championship at Treetops Resort and Michaywe Pines last Monday and Tuesday.

The two-day tournament was the latest stop on the Powerbilt Michigan Junior Tour. Competing in the girls 16 and over division, Murinas finished sixth with a two-round total of 175. Collins was just behind, placing eighth in 177. Both are Plymouth Salem students.

They weren't the only local standouts in the tournament. In the boys 16 and over division, Canton's Brian Fox tied for eighth with three others, shooting a 154. Livonia's Dave Higham took fourth with a 150.

All-State netter

The all-state teams in tennis, as selected by the 28-member board of directors of the Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Association, has been announced and Plymouth Salem's Xinning Li is one of the 19 players chosen to the all-Class A singles team.

No other netter from Observerland was so honored.

Softball champions

It took a come-from-behind effort, but the Blue Jays - regular-season winners of the American League with a 15-1 record - managed to best the National League-champ Dodgers in the best-of-three World Series to decide the championship of the Plymouth-Canton Junior Baseball League's 11-13 girls division.

The Dodgers won the opener in the Series rather easily, 17-7. But the Jays regrouped, edging the Dodgers 11-10 in the second game and then winning the clincher 9-4.

Mentadent Tournament

The Mentadent Champions Tournament will feature a dozen of the greatest men's over-35 tennis players when it visits The Fairlane Club in Dearborn Aug. 21-26.

Those expected to compete are Andres Gomez, Jimmy Connors, Bjorn Borg, Guillermo Villas, Roscoe Tanner, Johan Kriek, Jose Louis Clerc, John Lloyd, Peter Fleming, Eddie Dibbs, Mansour Bahrami, Tim Wilkinson and Mel Purcell.

Proceeds from parking at The Fairlane Club and the sale of programs will benefit the Hospice of Southeastern Michigan. Last year, the tournament raised more than $20,000 for Hospice programs.

Benefit run

The seventh annual Beat the Streets Benefit Runs, a series of trail events to aid the Hospice of Southeastern Michigan, is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 14 at Stony Creek Park in Washington, MI.

Livonia swimmer powers relay team to medal

BY BRAD EMONS

Livonian Sheila Taormina entered her first and only Olympics with the expectation of having fun.

But little did the 5-foot-3, 118-pound dynamo know, following her third leg on Team USA's victorious women's 4 X 200-meter freestyle relay, that July 25, 1996 would turn out to be a date she'll never forget.

Taormina tucked a gold medal underneath her bed Thursday night in the Olympic Village in Atlanta after a whirlwind day which saw her earn a spot for the evening finals after clocking the fastest 200 split (2:00.57) during the mid-morning prelims.

The Stevenson High and University of Georgia product then teamed up with Trina Jackson, Cristina Teuscher and anchor Jenny Thompson to set an Olympic and American record with a combined time of 7:59.87. Germany, led by world record holder Franziska van Almsick, was second (8:01.55).

Taormina, whose evening split was a respectable 2:01.29, took center stage with America's chief executive officer, Bill Clinton for a well-deserved photo opportunity.

Not only was the Clinton family on hand to witness the thrilling night of action, but so was the Taormina entourage of 20-plus.

"The euphoria hasn't worn off because I got to see how excited my family was today (Friday)," said the 27-year-old Taormina, who is one of Sam and Moya's eight children. "All my brothers and sisters were together for the first time in about eight years."

Longtime Clarenceville Swim Club coach Greg Phill, who has been with Sheila since she was nine, also witnessed the special moment.

"Everybody got emotional, it was a great, great ending to a great swimming career," Phill said. "I talked to her that morning and I had talked to her just about every day (leading up to the race).

"Everything just fell into place."

Taormina was considered a long-

Welcome home

Livonia is planning to publicly honor hometown Olympian Sheila Taormina after she returns from Atlanta next month.

Taormina and her swimming teammates took the gold medal in the women's 800-meter freestyle relay Thursday by a decisive margin over the highly touted German squad.

The excitement surrounding the victory was felt at Livonia City Hall Friday afternoon as Mayor Jack Kirksey, city employees and interested residents met to plan a gathering in her honor.

"We definitely want to do all we can to recognize Sheila," Kirksey said.

Ideas discussed included an outdoor party at the Livonia Civic Center, performances by the Livonia Symphony Orchestra and local high school marching bands, a receiving line and a parade around the civic center grounds.

Penn goes from lightweight to powerlifter

BY C.J. RISAK
SPORTS EDITOR

It wasn't exactly, precisely, a matter of choices.

No, that's not what led David Penn, a 1994 Plymouth Canton graduate, to powerlifting. It was more like, well - the only choice.

"I'd been using weights to train for other sports," Penn explained. "I'd been lifting and force-feeding myself ever since I was in high school."

The dividends were not immediately noticeable. Penn did not grow, and he did not improve much in the sports of his choice, football and wrestling.

"I was a terrible football player," he says now, without hesitation. "Because I was so small."

At 5-foot-6, 132 pounds, he didn't have much of a future as a lineman. And he wasn't much better at wrestling.

However, what Penn discovered along the way was that he enjoyed the training. Which led him into powerlifting, and a different type of competitive career.

Now 20, Penn has overcome shoulder surgery to add more than 60 pounds to his frame and become a national contender for powerlifting honors in the 198-pound weight division.

At the Mid-Summer Classic in Henderson, Ky., an American Drug Free Powerlifting Association (ADFPA) tune-up meet July 13, Penn won the deadlift with a total of 445 pounds and was second in the bench press in his weight division.

"That was like a trainer meet for me," said Penn, "to get ready for nationals."

Which is the meet Penn has been focused on. The ADFPA Deadlift Championship is Saturday in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

"My goal, my hope, is to make the top five (in my division) at nationals," he said.

Considering he's never before been to nationals, that goal is lofty indeed.

But attainable, Penn figures. And who's to argue? After all, he was 132 pounds when he graduated from Canton HS. After that, an injured shoulder led him to surgery at the end of '94. Since then, he had not competed until the meet in Henderson, Ky.

"I was really scared, going from 132 to 198," said Penn. Weak joints added to his apprehension.

But he's managed to persevere, and he insists he's done it cleanly, without using steroids, a favorite drug of weightlifters. "They just destroy your joints," Penn said of steroids. "I'd just fall apart.

"I guess it is a disadvantage, competing without using them. But I then storming back with four unanswered goals in that period.

Kyle McNeilance and Ben Blackwood each contributed two goals and an assist to the Bulldog effort, and John Brodhun had a goal and three assists. Jack McCoy also had a goal and an assist.

The Wolverines, who could have moved into second place in the Eagle Conference with a win, got three goals and an assist from Scott Lock, one goal and three assists from both Paul Goleniak and Scott Goleniak, and a goal from Mike Mattila.

Spartans 9, Broncos 6: For the second time in a week, the Spartans relegated the Broncos to a second-best position in the MSHL's Eagle Conference with a win Monday at Plymouth.

Scoring from Pat Dakhi, who collected three goals, and Brady Priest and Larry Leo, who contributed two apiece, paced the Spartan attack. Dakhi also had one assist; Jacob Heikkinen had two.

Other Spartan goals were scored by Josh Wiegand and Jake Wiegand.

The Broncos were led by Darren Hands' two goals. Daryl Schimmelpfenneg, Mike Forbis, Scott Hands and Jeramie Murray had one goal each. Brian Consolino had three assists, Brent Bessey had two, and both Forbis and Murray added one apiece.

Robert Harrison and Casey Ostig split time in goal for the winners, who solidified their hold on first place.

Falcons 12, Wolverines 5: Eight players scored goals for the Bakes Conference-leading Falcons Sunday at Plymouth.

Jesse Hubenschmidt, a Redford-Detroit Catholic Central grad, chalked up two goals and seven assists to lead the Falcons.

David Scott added four goals and three assists, Dan Hunt had two goals and two assists, Troy Taylor had a goal and three assists, Mike Chaka and Brian Calka got a goal and two assists apiece, Eric Laho had a goal and an assist, and both Mike Klinger and Michael Lanspeary totaled two assists.

For the Wolverines, Scott Lock picked up three goals and an assist, getting all three scores in the first period. Scott Goleniak had two goals and three assists, and Andrew Perry and Paul Goleniak collected three assists apiece.

Thomas Taylor and Jason Hubenschmidt split time in goal for the Falcons.

Bulldogs 12, Huskies 7: Early in the second period, the Huskies had a 4-3 lead - but they couldn't maintain it Sunday against the Bulldogs at Plymouth.

Ben Blackwood wrecked the Huskies with a goal and four assists. Dustin Sventy added two goals and two assists, Brent Thomas contributed two goals and an assist, Jack McCoy had a goal and two assists, and John Brodhun had two goals. Brian Tarsin chipped in three assists, with Tim Blackwood getting two, and Kyle McNeilance adding a goal and an assist.

Brian Hannigan had three goals, Jeremy Klosowski had two and two assists, and Kevin Swider scored a goal and assisted on three more for the Huskies. Kent LaFond, Walt Bartels, Dominic Catanzarite and Jason Schoenberg added singles goals.

Jordan McCormack and J.J. Weaks both played in goal for the 'Dogs.

Spartans 11, Wildcats 1: The Spartans surrendered one first-period goal, then swallowed up every other Wildcat threat Sunday at Plymouth.

Josh Wiegand headed the Spartan effort with a goal and five assists. Tony Tuzzolino finished with two goals and two assists, Jake Wiegand and Dane Esterline each had two goals and an assist, and Brady Priest scored two goals. J.P. Grondin netted a goal and an assist, Larry Leo scored once, and Pat Dakhi and John Fontana drew two assists apiece.

Casey Ostig and Robert Harrison were in the net for the division-leading Spartans.

The Wildcats only goal came from Bobby Davis, late in the first period.

It's summertime and the seniors are rolling.

The National Senior Bowling Association recently held its monthly tournament at Taylor's Skore Lanes and history repeated itself as Enrico Odorico of Clinton Townshp won this fourth title by outdistancing a strong field. He took home the trophy and bagged the first-place money of $1,000.

Other top finishers in the Observer & Eccentric coverage area include Doug Swords (Oxford), second; Rudy Pittaway (Canton), who qualified third and finished 10th; Jack Treloar (Farmington), 14th; Jerry Caldwell (Oxford), 18th; Ed Malinowski (Livonia), 19th; John Staricha (Livonia), 20th; Bud Bogotay (Farmington Hills), 21st; Bob Cassar (Garden City), 28th.

Trelor and Russ Winters each recorded high games during qualifying with 300s.

The next NSBA outing is the Labor Day Senior Classic, Friday through Sunday, Aug. 30 through Sunday, Sept. 1 at Century Bowl in Waterford.

That event will feature a $20,000 top prize (based on 350 entries). It's open to men and women, 50 and older.

For entry information, call the tournament office at (810) 932-LANE.

•The movie Kingpin opened this past weekend at theaters everywhere.

It's mostly about bowling, although some of the best sequences are away from the lanes.

A majority of the film was made in Pittsburgh, mainly because it's remains the only city which still boasts enough tacky-looking alleys to resemble the 1970s, even the 50s.

It culminates at the new National Bowling Stadium in Reno. It's a hilarious movie, so don't miss it. (See the movie review elsewhere in this edition.)

•The 60th annual John Gavie Tournament is shaping up, scheduled for Aug. 19 at Allen Park's Thunderbowl Lanes.

Openings remain for teams in the men's, women's and senior divisions.

It is now a ritual.

The legendary Joe Norris will fly from his California home to participate, which he can still perform amazingly well at the tender age of 87.

For entry information, call (313) 928-4688.

•Youth bowler Ryan Smith of Livonia registered his first 300 game last month at Country Lanes in Farmington. He works at Merri Bowl Lanes during the summer months.

•In summer league action, Julius Maisano of Redford fired a 300 game at Wonderland Lanes. It was the eighth perfect game for Maisano, who hones his game during the summer months in the Wednesday Summer Trio.

It was also a very hot night July 24 at the Wednesday Night Mixed League where Clarence Wolff rolled a 299.

Cory Williams added a 775 series, while Regina Love scored her first-ever 600 series. Jesse Greer, meanwhile, topp his 153 average by 105 pins with a 258 game.

shot at best to reach the finals. She, however, won the race within the relay race during the prelims, bettering the performances of first leg Lisa Jacob (2:01.31), second leg Ashley Whitney (2:01.77) and Ann Arbor's Annette Salmeen (2:01.34).

With both Jackson and Teuscher, the top 200 freestyle individual finishers already penciled in for their one-two finish at the Olympic Trials, and by adding four-time gold medalist Thompson to the mix, Taormina awaited word between sessions from U.S. Women's Coach Richard Quick.

"Their decision wasn't going to affect me one way or the other," Sheila said. "It was just going to be icing on the cake because just being at the Olympics was so much fun. I was just going to put a smile on my face, and if I got in, that was going to be an extra bonus."

Loose and all smiles during the prelims, Taormina felt a little more pressure during the finals.

"There was more nervousness inside, especially when I looked over at those German girls," she said. "They were all tall and looked gigantic. They were so big and intimidating. I knew they would be a tough relay to go against."

Taormina, also facing the pressure of winning America's fourth straight swim relay of the Atlanta Games, worried somewhat about letting her team down.

"I didn't want to be the one reason why we got the silver," she admitted.

After van Almsick staked the Germans to an early lead, Teuscher reeled in Kerstin Anke during the second leg and pulled even for Taormina's exchange.

Dueling with Kielgass Scholz, Taormina gradually began to wear her opponent down during the last 100 meters.

"Our strategy was to win the last 50 (meters) of every leg," Sheila said. "I didn't want to go out too hard, just swim at her pace and see how I felt. I felt good at 100, then I saw her hurting a bit and fall back."

Thompson then brought the gold home. And although it was their first time together, this U.S. 800 freestyle relay foursome had come together perfectly.

Taormina is now officially retired, but will take in the rest of the games before participating in the Closing Ceremonies.

Then it's another visiti with the Clintons at the White House.

"When I go home it may be hectic for a day, but life goes on," said Taormina, who plans to return to her full-time job at Northern Engraving Corp. in September (where bosses Aurel Mailheh and Phillip Gelatt gave her a leave of absence). "I don't think a lot is going to change.

"I'm sure there will be a party with my teammates. I just hope to share my experience now with others. I'd love to coach, but only as an assistant. I'll let Greg make all the decisions."

Summing up her historic day, Taormina said:

"I wouldn't say it was my best day, but my performance on that day is probably as good as it gets, considering I've been having problems with my back and my shoulder. I'm wearing out, so it's time to get out."

For winning the gold, Taormina is eligible to receive prize money from both the U.S. Olympic Committee and USA Swimming.

"It will help pay off some of my debts after taking off a year," she said. "Some days were embarrassing when I only had three dollars in my checkbook. I was kind of hurting financially."

But despite the hardships and rigorous training, Taormina's final day as a world-class swimmer was worth the price of gold.

Penn page 1C

don't like to cry about it."

Penn keeps his concentration centered on his own performance, rather than what others are doing, which helps in his personal war against drug use. Which is the reason he trains at home, with his own 500-pound weight set in his basement.

"I'm not real concerned about beating this person or beating that person. I just want to lift more than I did before," he explained. "I compete with myself."

That's why, at the national meet, Penn hopes to open with a deadlift attempt of 450 pounds - more than he's ever lifted. "From there, I'll just have to see what happens. I want to pull (lift) 500 real bad."

That isn't the limit to Penn's future plans. Despite the bulk he's already added, he's hoping to push himself up to 240 pounds and to deadlift "700 some day."

It's a reachable goal, if his joints can hold up to the pressure.

Mazda's MPV gets a well-executed makeover

By Anne Fracassa
Avanti NewsFeatures

ROAD TEST By Anne Fracassa

Mazda calls its 1996 MPV a "sport utility van." What happened to the multi-purpose vehicle tag?

Although the MPV has a lot of versatility, I wouldn't go so far as to say it's a sport utility. It still looks like a minivan.

With that said, the new makeover of the MPV was done with perfection and it really stands out as a new type of minivan. With its fourth hinged door that swings out — rather than slides — I can see how Mazda can position it as a hybrid between a conventional minivan and the truck-based sport utes on the road today.

What Mazda hopes to create with this new MPV is a new segment in the automotive market. It takes all the attributes of the minivan and sport utes and combines it into the new MPV.

On the outside, the MPV has been redesigned up front to provide a much more aggressive look. The new grille and larger bumper allows the MPV to have a much sportier look to it.

Mazda also lengthened the MPV by almost 8 inches (enlarging the crush zone), but its width remains the same. Overall height has been increased nearly an inch because of a redesigned suspension.

One thing I love about this MPV is the fact that not only does it have four hinged doors, but also it has four windows that have a power-down feature. That means you can cool down the interior really fast by opening the four windows. On most minivans, you can only roll down the two front windows.

On this inside, you'll find everything flows around the driver and passengers. The dash and instrument panel are almost one piece. The speedometer and tachometer have increased in size to provide better legibility.

Also on the instrument panel, the automatic transmission indicator, other gauges and warning lamps are all located up front and right there in the instrument cluster. In the center instrument panel, the heating and cooling system, stereo, cup holders and storage compartment are all within easy reach. Even the glove box on the passenger's side has been enlarged.

There are bigger pockets on all four doors. Passenger assist grips are positioned above three of the doors and are handy for grandma or grandpa to use. Or even a mom or dad who's sore after a quick game of basketball with the kids.

Here's where the versatility comes in: Interior seating can accommodate five, seven or eight passengers. There's a walk-though area that allows passengers to move from front and rear seats. Also available are captain's chairs for the second-row passengers.

The third rear seat is easier to remove and has plenty of cupholders as well. In the eight-passenger version the second row seat is a bench seat with an armrest in the center. It can be flipped forward and used as a table with four cupholders.

The MPV is still powered by the same 3.0-liter V6 from the previous model. The engine's maximum output it 155 horsepower. That's adequate for carting the kiddies around town, but I'd like to see a little more power. If you've got a heavy load, it seems to complain a bit. A 4-speed automatic transmission is standard equipment.

There are two drivetrains to choose from: The rear-wheel-drive and the 4WD version. The rear-wheel-drive allows better towing capacity, compared to the front-wheel-drive minivans on the market. A load leveling package, standard on the ES and an option on the LX, allows the 2-wheel-drive model to tow up to 4,300 pounds. The 4WD model can tow 4,000 pounds. The package includes automatic load leveling, transmission oil cooler, larger cooling fan and full-size spare tire. The fan and tire are standard on the 4WD models.

The 4WD version, which was tested, had a center differential that responded quickly to various road and weather conditions with no less than a touch of a button. It gives you a little more traction on wet or snowy roads.

Also: Dual airbags and anti-lock brakes are standard on the MPV.

The MPV is a versatile minivan. Mazda must be doing something right since the MPV now has a higher owner loyalty than the Dodge Caravan.

1996 Mazda MPV
Vehicle class: Minivan.
Engine: 3.0-liter SOHC 18-valve V6.
Mileage: 15 city/ 22 highway.
Where built: Japan.
Base price: $21,465.
